

Workshop: Leaving Something Behind (only available April – September)

Artist: Henry Castle

Title: Hare Hill

Aim: Objects represent our identity, memories and history. Using the casting process, we will explore the relationship we have with time and place and how it feels to leave a little piece of us behind.

Method: Using the casting process learners will explore their identity through the objects they carry with them. Learners will cast this object into plaster, break it apart and take one with them and leave the other buried in the Jupiter landscape.

Curriculum Links: Materials and Techniques, Concepts and Themes, 3D Construction

Materials and Processes: Clay, Plaster

Workshop Duration: 1.5 - 2hr (approx.)

Time Plan: (Approx.)
