

Conjunctions – What They Mean

Place the following conjunctions in the appropriate boxes, below, matching them with the type of relationship between ideas they suggest.

- after
- although
- and
- as
- because (2 boxes)
- before
- but
- even though
- for
- if
- in order that
- nor
- or
- rather than
- since (2 boxes)
- so (3 boxes)
- so that
- once
- though
- unless
- until
- when
- whenever
- provided that
- where
- whereas
- wherever
- whether
- while
- when
- yet

|                                      |                                       |                               |                                 |
|--------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|-------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| Additional Information | Contrasting Information | Cause or Reason | Result or Effect  |
| Location               |                                       |                               |                                 |
| Time                   | Purpose                 | Condition       | Choice/Non-Choice |