Dear [Mr. /Mrs. /Ms.] [Manager's name]

I am honored to be writing this application letter for the designation of software developer at [mention the name of the corporation or organization]. Working at such an esteemed organization like yours has always been a wish and I am truly happy thinking that I am almost there to see my wish getting fulfilled.

I possess a [mention the name of the degree] in [mention the name of the course]. Coming from a humble family background of farmers, back in [mention the name of the location], I have always tried my level best to score well and make my parents proud. Ever since my college days, my only aim was to secure the job of a software developer in one of the leading organizations of [mention the name of the place] and for that, I have made myself capable, at every point.

If you ask about my skills, I have the right mechanical aptitude, a sound knowledge of the programming languages, true accuracy and attention to detail, and exceptional time management and organizational skills. In addition to all these, my database knowledge and debugging knowledge are effective as well.

I have successfully completed [mention the number of years] at [mention the name of the company] as a junior software developer, handling all my responsibilities well. I assisted the development team with all my abilities, fixed bugs, wrote basic codes, and attended design meetings. I am proud to say that not even once did I disappoint my seniors and was truly praised for my work throughout my employment days over there.

Thank you for considering me for this position. I will be glad if I get called for an interview, so that I can be a part of your respected team soon, contributing to the development of the company.

Sincerely,

Signature
