

[thunderstorm outside] [chuckle] You should be more careful. It tends to get rainy in these parts. Little one, didn't anyone ever warn you about wandering into a strangers home?

Well yes, of course but this is a cave...

Yes it is. But this is where snakes live. Haven't you heard the stories? Large humanoid snakes that live in the forests. Exiled from society, forced to live all alone in places like this. If I was allowed, I would love to live with people like you. Feel the sun on my lavender scales without fear of being hunted. But that is not a reality for creatures like me because folks like you think I'm dangerous. Do you think I'm dangerous?

No.

Good. Poor thing, you're shivering. Why don't I wrap my tail around you for warmth. [tail noises start] Don't worry little one, I'm not going to eat you. [chuckle] You are not my type. I prefer to feast on things like fish or vegetables. I find that the taste of humans is a little off putting. Never developed a taste for it like some of the others of my kind. Besides, you are just too cute. Relax and let Mommy take care of you baby. No, don't try to break free. You know I'm much stronger than you. Can feel every muscle of my tail working around you, restraining you, and bringing you to my eye level. I want to see that face up close.

[few more seconds of tail noises that come to a stop] Now look into my eyes. Such a pretty yellow color, isn't it? Something that you could get lost in. That's it. Keep staring into my eyes. That's so good, little one. Look into Mommy's eyes. What I'm about to tell you is the truth and the whole truth. It is the only thing that you are going to need from now on. You belong to me. I am your Mommy domme. You are my submissive little baby. You do what I say. You get spoiled when you are good and get punished when you are bad. You are very happy here. You feel the safest when you are wrapped in Mommy's strong tail. There is nothing more you could want in this world besides being Mommy's special little one. You are obedient and don't miss your old life. You understand that this is what is best for you. After all, you are too little to be in the woods all alone. It is such a wonderful thing that Mommy took you in and started to care for you. Showed you exactly what you are. You are mommy's good & submissive little one who loves her very much. You belong wrapped in Mommy's tail. When I snap my fingers you'll wake up.

[snap] Isn't that better, sweetheart? You aren't so cold from the rain, are you? All nice and warm wrapped up in my tail. This is where you love to be isn't it? So small when my scales are covering the entirety of your body and I still have so much tail left to move around. What would you do without Mommy here? You are way too little to be out there in the forest during a thunderstorm alone. But that's okay, because Mommy is here, right?

Right!

Awww, so cute. Such a good little baby for me. Let me give that nose a kiss. [kiss] Boop! [chuckle] You know I couldn't resist booping such an adorable nose. It's perfect for kisses and booping and other things, isn't it? [chuckle] That seemed to make my baby squirm a bit, huh? Do you know what kind of thing I'm talking about? What on earth could I be talking about that involves feeling good and using your nose? Who knows? [scales move a bit] Mmmm you like that, don't you? The scales getting a little bit tighter around you. It's like a warm weighted blanket the massages you. It feels so good. You feel so relaxed, don't you little one?

Yes.

Good, good. That's what Mommy wants. To take care of someone as precious as you. I've been alone in this cave for so long. It has been a while since I spoke to anyone who could talk back. The animals in these parts aren't really for conservation. That's why I have you. Seeing you shivering in my cave, trying to escape the storm rattling through the woods, I knew you would be exactly what I wanted. Gullible, sweet, and cute as a button. Perfect to make into Mommy's special little one, aren't you? Awww, so cute. Look into my eyes again sweetheart. Good, that's good. Relax yourself and sink deeper looking into your Mommy's yellow eyes.

Being wrapped in Mommy's tail makes you happy. It brings up thoughts of all the naughty things you two can do together with her tail. The one that you are wrapped up so tightly in. Mommy's tail is what feels the best in the world to you. You never feel more complete than when the tail is touching a part of you, whether that is inside or outside. This is because you are a well behaved sweetheart for your Mommy. Whatever Mommy says goes. You can't make decisions for yourself. You are too little. Your brain doesn't work like Mommy's. Mommy takes care of you and loves you. You love her back. There is nothing you want besides your Mommy's touch. Now I'm going to snap and I want you to come back to me baby. But come back a little turned on.

[snap] Aww, is someone getting all horny? Did being wrapped up so nice and tight in Mommy's big, strong tail get a certain sweetheart all turned on? [chuckle] Well, since I got you all riled up, I should take care of the issue between your legs, right? After all, a good Mommy domme takes care of all of her little ones' needs. Even the naughtier ones. Have you been having dirty thoughts about Mommy? Imagining her hands roaming all over your body, feeling my hot mouth leaving hickeys on your neck, my tail entering your hungry little hole.

[few kisses] I know what you need, baby. I know. Don't worry, Mommy is going to give you it in time. You need to earn my tail. You remember how sensitive it is, right? The ribbed tip is so sensitive that it acts like a clit of some sort. Or maybe even a cock is more appropriate in this case considering it can penetrate you. I know how it drives you wild when Mommy slowly, inch by inch, pushes her thick tail inside your little hole. Always so warm and welcoming, eager for Mommy to play with. Why don't I start shifting my scales around your body. Teasing every centimeter at the same time. Yeah. It's a little overwhelming, isn't it sweetheart? That's okay. I know you can take it. You can take whatever Mommy gives you because you are such a good little one, can't you? Yeah, of course you can. Want to make Mommy proud. Want to make Mommy feel good. Being obedient for Mommy feels so good, doesn't it little one?

I bet I could make you cum just like this baby. My scales shimmying across your skin, my tail constricting around your body more and more. Enough to make it hard to breathe but you can still take in some gasps. Yeah. It feels so good. That's it. Relax into Mommy's touch. Let Mommy take care of you. I know what to do. Know what you like. That's it. Sink deeper for me. Allow the pleasure to fog your brain. Stare into Mommy's yellow eyes and let the bliss overwhelm you. Don't think about anything else except how the tail feels against you, surrounding you, completely engulfing that body. The only part of you exposed is that adorable little head of yours so you can keep looking into my yellow eyes. Mmmm good, that's so good. You are doing so good for Mommy, baby. If you need to cum, you can cum. If you don't, then you don't have to. All Mommy wants you to do is feel good. Yeah, keep that up. Let all those cute noises lose. I want to see my baby lose all self control. Come apart wrapped up in Mommy's tail. I am going to keep playing with you like this until you are too dumb to speak. It's not like you really need words to tell Mommy what you want, right baby? Mommy always knows what you need. And what I think you need is something to fill that tight little hole, right?
