Name: Saraleann

Race: Human

Class: Wild Magic Barbarian

Background: Criminal

Expression/Pose: A big, close mouth grin. Eyes can be open or closed, your choice. Arms crossed in a casual pose as if she was standing with her weight shifted to her heels during a long conversation. Friendly but not goofy about it, slight undertone of a serious edge.

Description

Standing at 6'3" and with a muscular build to match, she is a rather imposing woman. Her build is not bulky, instead more on the practical end of weight lifters versus bodybuilders (a little more 'meat on her bones' than toned muscles) (Jasper from Steven Universe is a good example). Her nose has been broken more than once, giving it a slightly crooked appearance. A few scars on her brows and jaw add to her rough expression. Often forgetting to tend to her appearance her hair has matlocked and formed thick strands that she ties up to keep out of her face. It's not uncommon for her to have a dirt smudge or two somewhere on her body. She's always got a big, dumb grin on her face and doesn't know what's happening most days.

Being prone to anger she gets in at least one fistfight every few nights, explaining her scars and bedraggled appearance. Preferring loose-fitting, comfortable clothes she doesn't much care what she wears beyond that. Her outfit consists of a loose-fitting vest that is always open and unbuttoned, a tank top that's seen better days, and some men's trousers she found somewhere. The trousers are a little too large and look extra baggy on her.

Key Elements: Hair in matlocks, Thick dark eyebrows, Rough appearance on her face (broken nose and scars), Brass Knuckles with Yellow Flames on them. Large "WWE" style leather and brass belt.

Colorful Tattoos all over her. Up and down her neck, on her shoulders, down her arms, across her chest. (These tattoos are based on her Wild Surge Feature)
