Open the door, open the door, open the door! Open the door (....) You did this to me. You fucking did this to me, Fez. You fucking ruined my life. do you wish i was different?

i'm super simple in terms of rules. all i ask is no godmodding, or problematic behavior. i'm not very selective, but will only be writing with people that i'm following to keep things neat. i'm usually pretty shy on here for some reason but am trying to get over that, because i do want to write with you if i'm following you. if i dm you, don't clown me, i'll cry. lmao. if you have any triggers you want tagged, please just shoot me a message. if you want to ship, i'm typically pretty open and excited about things like that, so again, just let me know, and i'll tell you if i'm interested!
