

Written Pledge

Dear Niigata University President,

I apply for G-DORM Online Program 2023 (hereafter called as "Program"). During the participation, I promise to take attitude and behavior that is not embarrassing as a student of home university, to concentrate on the Program, and strictly to follow the below matters.

- (1) I comply with instruction of Niigata University and strictly follow the rules established by the university during the program period.
- (2) I comply with the laws and regulations of Japan and my home country, and I do NOT take actions that violate the social order or are predicted of danger.
- (3) I shall bear expenses for incurring medical costs and liability of damages happened by accidents or injuries in the period of this Program, and shall NOT charge Niigata University for the expenses.
- (4) In case that any damage occurs due to unpredictable situations such as natural disasters or riots, I waive my rights to request compensation for the damage to Niigata University, regardless of responsibility.
- (5) I do NOT leak any confidential matter that I gain during the program to a third party at all.
- (6) In case that I cause damages or losses for Niigata University and/or organizations involved in the program intentionally or by gross negligence, I do compensate for the damages/losses immediately.
- (7) I definitely participate in the Program in submitting this Pledge. However, in case of my cancelation to the participation of the Program due to unexpected problems, I shall pay necessary costs for the cancelation if any.
- (8) I follow other instructions deemed necessary by Niigata University.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I hereto have duly signed this Pledge on the dates set forth below.

Print Name: _____

Signature: _____

Date: _____