

“ Swift as a deer. Quiet as a shadow. Fear cuts deeper than swords. Quick as a snake. Calm as still water. Fear cuts deeper than swords. Strong as a bear. Fierce as a wolverine. Fear cuts deeper than swords. ”

— RULES

This blog is an 18+ independent & selective blog for ARYA STARK from A Song of Ice and Fire and the television series, Game of Thrones. I primarily follow book canon with show influences.

This blog is under reconstruction.

ABOUT THE MUN.

My name is Ash (she/they). I'm 25+ and my timezone is EST. I ask that you respect me and my boundaries and I'll always extend you the same courtesy. Roleplaying is for fun. I make time for it when I can but may not be active all the time. If there's anything you'd like to discuss, feel free to reach out through asks/messages.

1. SELECTIVE. This is a selective blog. Memes and the askbox are open to anyone 18+, but starter calls, open starters and threads are for mutuals only.

2. PLOTTING. If we're mutuals, feel free to approach me to plot or talk OOC. I tend to prefer plotted threads. My preference for writing tends to be multiple paragraphs. I'll occasionally do one-liners and shorter replies but I enjoy having more room to explore character dynamics.

3. ASKS. For asks, if you want a specific muse, please specify. If you want to turn an answered ask into a thread, please move it to a new text post. I'm generally understanding but note that if you do it multiple times I reserve the right to not roleplay with you.

4. TRIGGERS. I don't have many triggers but I reserved the right to speak up if I find something upsetting. If there is anything you're not comfortable, tell me and I'll adjust accordingly.

5. SHIPPING. I ship all my muses and chemistry, meaning I'm open to most ships (this extends beyond romance). However, I am not comfortable with smut, nor incest. Please respect my comfort and boundaries

— MAINS & EXCLUSIVES

Having mains and exclusives help me prioritize my time when doing replies and other interactions, it also helps me feel comfortable with the relationships between our muses. Mains are for roleplay partners whose interactions I will prioritize and approach for plots. Exclusives are muses where I will not interact with duplicates of said muse.
