Frequently Asked Questions

SEASONAL QUESTIONS

Are there any seasonal camping sites left for 2025?

If you are interested in seasonally camping with us, it is best to get your information by calling us at 419-433-4118. We typically book up in the fall for the following season. Give us a call and get on our waiting list.

Are there any seasonal marina docks left for 2025?

Yes! Call 419-433-4118 to make a reservation for a seasonal dock.

How do I book a seasonal site for 2025?

First, please make sure you're on the site request list. You can get your name on the list by calling 419-433-4118. Deposits are due from our current seasonal campers on August 1st, once deposits are collected we will know what sites are available. From there, we will begin calling down the request list. Once calls begin it is first come, first serve with a deposit of half of the site cost in order to hold a site.

What are your seasonal site amenities?

Seasonal sites include only the site, a gravel pad, water, and electric hook up. Site holders are responsible for setting up an account to be billed for their own electric through Ohio Edison. Riverfront sites allow the site holder the option to build or place a dock off their site at no charge, however, those docks are not provided. We also offer marina docks, a honey wagon service (sewer on a select few sites), 24/7 campground access, scheduled activities, evening entertainment, a campground store, and many other campground amenities.

What is the cost for additional adults or children on a seasonal site?

Additional adults are $100 and additional children are $50 for the entire season.
