

Watchstone Race

Race Description

This is a medium-length(10-15h) solo hardcore Path of Exile race event to kill 4 endgame bosses (Searing Exarch, Eater of Worlds, Maven, Uber Elder) as soon as possible. It serves to display players' knowledge of early progression, build optimization and creativity (DD banned), and mechanical skill and speed - all while balanced against the risk of death. This format is chosen for two primary reasons. Firstly, the objectives can be completed in a single play session for above-average veteran Path of Exile players. Secondly, it most closely resembles the primary objective for "league start" builds and thus is a conducive format to "league start" testing.

Objective

Acquire 4 watchstones by defeating the following bosses:

- Searing Exarch (quest version)
- Eater of Worlds (quest version)
- Maven
- Uber Elder
