The Friends hope to be accepting donations again in August or September so please consider holding on to your book donations if possible!

If you really need those books gone, however, some options are below:

THRIFT STORES ACCEPTING BOOK DONATIONS

If you know of other thrift stores that are definitely accepting book donations, please email as much info as you have to friends_altadenalibrary@yahoo.com

[note: the book store on Lake and Orange Grove is temporarily closed]

SMALL OUTDOOR LIBRARIES

There are many small outdoor libraries interested in stocking books - too many to list here, but if you are interested in donating to them you can check your local Nextdoor pages!

INDIVIDUAL BOOK SELLERS WILLING TO PICK UP BOOKS

If the above don't work for you for any reason but you urgently need books picked up, please email friends_altadenalibrary@yahoo.com and we can connect you to book sellers who are willing to do this.
