

Google Doc - Brainstorming

1. What are some human activities that have been hurting the whales?

oil machine and air blast HURTING WHALES make sanctuary for whales to help the whales human activity saving the whales the oil search underwater exploration the people don't care about whales the president allow the citizens to harm the whales

2. What will help save the whales?

using campaigns

I think it will help to give whales rights if people raise money for the whales, it will be better for them educate young children make laws to protect the whales teach everyone about saving whales help teachers understand what they can do please give money from the people care more ABOUT THE WHALES