

Any, no, none – quantifiers

Exercise 1

Choose any/no/none to complete these sentences.

We couldn't find open restaurants.

Do you have pets?

There are still answers about what happened to her.

A: How much milk did you buy? B: . Sorry, I forgot.

You can use computer in the room. All of them work.

of the films are available on streaming platforms.

We're worried. We've had news from them since they left.

I didn't ask questions.

A: How many chapters have you finished? B: . I've had no time.

Did you have problems?

Exercise 2

Choose the correct option for each gap below.

Page 1 of 2

Did you go _____?

a.anywhere

b.nowhere

c.no place

A: What did you do? B: _____. We went back home.

a.Nothing

b.Anything

c. Nowhere

A: How many episodes did you watch? B: _____. I read a book.

a. No

b. Nothing

c. None

I didn't tell _____ what happened.

a. nobody

b. anybody

c. no person

Shh, be quiet please! _____ could hear us.

a. Anybody

b. Nobody

c. No person

Any, no, none – quantifiers

Exercise 3

Fill in the gaps with no, any, none or anything, anybody, anywhere, nothing, nobody, nowhere.

We didn't hear _____ the night of the event.

There were _____ witnesses who could testify.

We didn't go _____. We stayed at home.

_____ will tell me what to do. I'm an independent person.

Did you have _____ visitors last Sunday?

A: How many visitors did you have? B: _____. I was alone all day.

A: Who visited you last Sunday? B: _____. I was alone all day.

_____ of the suspects have been publicly named.

I'm sorry, but it's too late. There is we can do now.

Please, ask. I'm here to answer questions you might have.