

Generic Interracial Jumpchain

By u/NordicPieEater

Version: 0.9

Intro

Do you think Black is Back? White is Right? Brown is Renowned? Something different than those choices? Well now here's a Jump to prove it, as for the next ten years you will be spending your time in a world where you will be indulging in lots of interracial sex of all kinds! Or not, it's not exactly being forced upon you with this Jumpchain, but why else would you pick this in the first place? Regardless of why, or what you plan to do, you are now stuck completing this Jump. All Origins function as a Drop In, with a minimalist background guaranteed for wherever you start in whatever time period.

Wholesome King/Queen

Perhaps your preferred style of interracial is one of love and romance between different peoples. This is the Origin for that. The Perks in this Origin focus on maintaining a Harem, guaranteeing true Love, and ensuring Fidelity.

Godly Gangbanger

Perhaps your preferred style of interracial is one of group sex with multiple individuals surrounding a singular individual. This is the Origin for that. The Perks in this Origin focus on Flexibility & Coordination of Positions, searching around and Finding Sexual Participants, and guaranteeing that Debauchery & Sloppiness Benefits All.

Interracial Evangelist

Perhaps your preferred style of interracial is one that spreads throughout the world, to every corner it can reach. This is the Origin for that. The Perks in this Origin focus on spreading Subliminal Messages, gaining Charisma Through Diversity, and changing an entire setting's Interracial Circumstance.

TBD(Origin Desc)

Age & Gender

You may choose to begin the jump at any age over 16 years old. You may choose, free of cost, to be either male or female, or pay 50CP to become a futanari.

Location & Setting

Somewhere Quite Familiar...

It seems as though you've been zipped off to a near exact copy of Earth! However, several changes seem to have taken place. Firstly, if you are from Earth, then there no longer exists a counterpart 'you' on this world. If you search you'll, surprisingly, find your family still exists, just... not you. Secondly, this world seems to have been lewd-ified, to a certain extent. Mind you, not to a ludicrous degree, the sanctity of marriage still stands (as much as it did before, anyways), but you'll find promiscuity is noticeably more common than it might appear under the surface, and people are generally more willing to have sex than before. Thirdly, there seems to be a distinct lack of interracial porn of most kinds. It's not that people don't want or desire that stuff, but it simply hasn't been tapped into yet, or become widespread, for some odd reason... Perhaps something for the honorable Jumper to change?

Enough description! Roll a 1d8 to choose your time period, or pay 50 CP to choose as you wish. You may enter in any year, and in any location on Earth, listed in the time period you have rolled.

1. 21st Century (2001 - 2024)
2. Late 20th Century (1951 - 2000)
3. Early 20th Century (1901 - 1950)
4. Late 19th Century (1851 - 1900)
5. Early 19th Century (1801 - 1850)
6. Colonial Period (1491 - 1800)
7. Middle Ages (400 - 1490)
8. Free Choice!

Discount Rules

Perks corresponding to your Origins get a 50% discount off whatever price is listed, with the 100 CP Perks being free for that origin. Each Origin gets a single discount to apply to any item, with that item becoming free.

General Rules

As a special rule for this Jump, every single individual Perk you can purchase within this Jumpchain comes with its own toggle. You can't scale it, like on a dial, but you can choose to either completely disable the effects of a perk, or keep them active.

General Perks

-Interracial Beginnings (0 CP)

Regardless of why you chose this Jump, or what you're here for, you got to at least have the thematic basics. With this perk, you are now considerably more desirable and attractive to members of other races than you previously were, on an exponential scale. A 0/10 putrid looking human would maybe be able to draw an eye or two occasionally from other races, while a 10/10 objectively perfect human would make mouths water, pussies clench, and dicks iron hard with nothing more than a single glance. Additionally, those of other races will even ignore most stigma, social statuses, and social prejudices just for a chance with you, such as a beautiful Indian Princess going beneath her station to get a piece of your 4/10 White NEET cock...

-Ideal Appearance (100 CP)

For NSFW Jumps, it's always better to look good than to look bad, right? Well this is something that helps with that. Not only do you become, at minimum, a 9/10 on the attractiveness scale, but you are able to customize what you look like with a larger range of choices. Want to be an 8 foot tall, broad shouldered Black man with muscles abound? Perhaps you wish to be a beautiful Asian femboy with all the girlish charm you want, in the body of a man—all the better to disarm and reel in those of other races into your trap, of course. Regardless of what aesthetic or theme you're going for, you can now customize how you look this Jump with vastly superior control and extremes. Yes, this even applies to giving yourself a foot long cock.

-Bedroom Baron (200 CP)

What's the use in having a thick BWC if you don't know how to use it? With the purchase of this perk, you become a true master of the bedroom, and virtually any skill related to the bedroom. Foreplay, dirty talk, seduction, oral, actual sex, and many, many more miscellaneous skills are now learned by you to such a degree that you are easily within the top one-hundred best humans in the sexual arts to have ever lived on this Earth.

-Once You Go _____, You Never Go Back (200 CP)

The pleasures you bring are so good that once you have been with someone, no matter what reasons they may have against it, they will still desire more of you. This Perk scales in power depending on how much total pleasure you have given them, with bonus strength being added if they are of a different race. That beautiful Native American woman you banged into a coma a few days ago will now actively go against her marriage just for another chance at your fat Middle Eastern dick.

-Ethical Thought (400 CP)

For many Jumpers, a thought lingers at the back of my mind. Did I just brainwash that girl into letting me impregnate her after meeting for only three seconds? With this Perk, that's no longer a problem. All of your Perks, Powers, Abilities, or Skills, unless specifically and explicitly stated to be otherwise, will never be actual mind control. Regardless of how godlike your charisma, or how intimidating your aura, you will never have to worry about the ethics of using such things on others. Any thoughts, feelings, or changes someone develops, and any decisions they make, now come from within themselves, and themselves alone, being as real as anything else they've thought or done. This also guarantees that any of your Husband/Wives/Lovers truly love you, if they do love you, and that all of your Companions are with you out of their own free will.

Benefactor's Best Breeder

-Never An Accident (100CP)

Worried that you might ruin your perfect streak of breeding White Women after an encounter with a gorgeous Middle Eastern Milf? Then this is the Perk for you. You can perfectly control your fertility, on a scale from 'barren as a desert' to 'as fertile as a god(dess) of life'. But perhaps that isn't enough for you, so there's also something else. Anyone you happen to have sex with will also gain control over their own fertility, albeit an unconscious one. If they do not desire a child to be spawned from their own sexual encounters, then it simply will not happen. You can pick and choose who you grant this secondary aspect to, but cannot rescind it once given.

-Parental Control (200CP)

You can now completely pick and choose which physical aspects of a child they inherit from their parents. You can mix and match, combine, or have them completely follow a single parent in their appearance. But c'mon now, that's pretty basic isn't it? So here's something else. Not only can you control your children's physical aspects, but you can form within them a sort of 'genetic override', wherein the traits you choose for them to inherit become hyper-dominant in future descendents, all but ensuring the twelve-inch cocked Latina genes you guaranteed your son to have will continue down for eons to come.

-Power Through Procreation (400CP)

Now THIS is something out of a badly written Webnovel FanFiction. This Perk grants you chunks of 'assignable power' for each child you have. You might be asking, what the fuck does 'assignable power' mean? Well, it essentially means you gain small, raw pieces of potency that are maintained within your soul that you can assign to any aspect of your being to improve it. Strength, intelligence, mana capacity, and so forth can be improved, and you can even choose to increase your talent and potential at certain skills or abilities instead of direct forms of power as well! Now, these chunks of power aren't massive, but if you really get into breeding for a Jump or two, they'll stack up far quicker than you might imagine. Additionally, you gain large starting bonuses for each new race you have a child with, and an additional massive chunk upon getting a child in every race in the world. This perk continues to be of use even after you become the very best that no one ever was and bang 'em all, also applying to every new kind of (sentient) species you procreate with.

Wholesome King/Queen Perks

-Happy Herd (100CP)

Everyone is looking for love in someone, even if they don't realise it. But what happens when you find yourself loving multiple someones? This is the Perk to ensure that such a thing can happen with few issues. Anyone you are in a relationship with is now far more open to allowing you to bring in other people into your lives, whether that just be as a one night threesome, or as an additional member of your actual relationship. As an added benefit, this Perk grows in power depending on the makeup of your newfound harem. If you had, say, only African women, this Perk would provide the baseline protections it does, meaning there's still a decent chance at arguments, in-fighting, and general unhappiness with the situation. If you had a harem made up of multiple different races at once, however? This perk becomes significantly stronger; if you had one member of each race in your Harem then there would be essentially no fighting between members, them living in perfect harmony with each other and their mutual feelings towards you. This also guarantees that, regardless of what society you live in, the legal code, or the norms, you will be able to marry multiple partners at a time; no one will look at you strangely or think negatively about your relationship, and your relationship alone.

-Union Between Peoples (200CP)

What's the point of having a loving interracial relationship if it inevitably ends up falling apart? That's got to stop, and it will thanks to this. With this Perk, anyone who you love, and who loves you in return will find that their passion never fades; that initial honeymoon phase feeling of a relationship never going away once love is achieved. Additionally, you will both gain a sense of precognition and intuition about each other. You will know what to do to make them happy, what small actions could benefit their day, and they will, in turn, know the same about you. Finally, you will find that the stronger the love between you and your lover grows, so too shall you grow in power. If it needed to be stated, this Perk applies to yourself, and any partners you have, so long as you love them and they love you. The power of this Perk is amplified by a decent amount if you get married to your lover(s), and again some more if they are of a different race.

-Absolute Fidelity (400CP)

Nothing, and I mean nothing, is worse than getting cheated on by someone you care about. This Perk will solve that issue—Forever. This Perk simply grants an absolute, fiat-backed guarantee of fidelity from those around you. It doesn't matter what form or shape it comes in, none of your Spouses/Lovers/Girlfriends/Boyfriend/Companions will ever betray you in any form, either unconsciously or consciously. This doesn't stop them from breaking away from a relationship with you and pursuing their own things, but it does stop them from betraying you while you have an established relationship with them.

Godly Gangbanger

-Acrobatic Coordination (100 CP)

The benefits of this perk are two-fold. Not only are you insanely flexible—to the point where you could fit through a hole so long as the largest bone in your body could—but it also confers synergy and coordination when in group sexual activities.

No matter how many people are involved, or what contortions are necessary for a sex act, all of those involved will have the same degree of flexibility and contortionism you do, while also syncing every participant's actions together in perfect unison to bring out maximum pleasure in all parties involved. Yes, even that nerdy Asian girl you've had your eyes on can perform elite gymnastics, so long as it involves bouncing on your thick Black cock.

-Fetish Finder (200 CP)

Whether you are looking for a group of men to run a train on you or a willing lady for you and your boys to go to town on, finding participants for a bit of group sex is never a problem for you, thanks to this Perk. You can, at will, project a virtual map in front of you that shows a simple outline of everything within a 150km radius of yourself. Through this map, you can find people, but more specifically, you can find people with fetishes and willingness to indulge in those fetishes. By activating filters, which you can control as exactly as you desire, you can sort out people willing to engage in any kind of sexual fetish imaginable, as well as have it be shown how willing they are to get nasty with you in a short amount of time. As fate would have it, this also has a more esoteric secondary benefit, as it will increase both the chances that people within this radius will be willing to participate in your chosen kink(s), as well as increase how easily you can get them to fuck shortly after meeting, but only so long as it involves at least some kind of interracial in the encounter.

-Sloppy, But Sexy (400 CP)

With this Perk, not only is no one involved in a sexual encounter you're a part of going to be bothered coming into contact with another's bodily fluids, or bumping into the wrong parts of another's anatomy, but this sloppiness in sexual interaction will make the encounter all the better. The more debauchorous, raunchy, and downright sloppy a group sexual encounter is, the more every participant will gain several benefits. Firstly, they will begin to feel more and more pleasure, up to the maximum they can physically handle without it becoming pain or making them feel overstimulated. Secondly, every participant will quickly gain immunities to refractory periods or recharge times, able to cum again and again without needing to stop and rest. Thirdly, and speaking of rest, as this encounter goes on and on, each participant will become energized, refreshed, and well-nourished, with an hour of mildly debauchorous gangbang being equal to about eight hours worth of rest, recovery, and sustenance. You and your friends could fuck that White girl you found at that bar last night for an entire month straight, without ever slowing down.

Interracial Evangelist

-Subliminal Messaging (100 CP)

You can now, regardless of what you actually say or do, imbue your words and actions with subliminal messages. You can pick and choose who is and isn't affected by these messages, but on their own they take a while to truly take hold, about a month or two for only a simple order or command. On the bright side, however, is that these subliminal messages are fiat-backed guaranteed to be entirely undetectable, and can be spread through any medium or form of media, such as recordings or broadcasts. The more complex the message is, the more willpower a target has, and the more personally against the command they are, will all contribute to how much longer it takes to affect them. As an added bonus, subliminal messages that have to do with interracial, or spreading interracial desires, are significantly boosted in strength and speed.

-Charisma Through Diversity (200 CP)

Ahhh, it truly wouldn't be a Generic Jumpchain without SOME kind of charisma perk! Well this is it! By default, you now gain charisma equal to one of the best politicians or public speakers you can think of, with any form of social anxiety and stagefright being removed entirely. But that's quite boring, wouldn't you agree? Let's spice this up. You now gain flat amounts of natural charisma and persuasive power for every other type of race you have sexual intercourse with. The first African girl you fuck would be worth the most bonus charisma, while the second girl would be worth nine-tenths as much, and the next would be nine-tenths of that nine-tenths, and so on. You also gain a profound amount of extra charisma when you are conversing with others about interracial, more specifically about your preferred brand(s) of interracial.

-Racial Shift (400 CP)

Perhaps you don't want to personally change how a certain form of interracial is viewed or desired. Perhaps you just want to simply click a button, and "WHAM", it's done. That's what this Perk is here for. Before the start of every Jump, including this one, you may, up to two times, change how one race views or acts towards another race, and not only that you can decide it on a gender by gender basis. Want Asian women to be naturally submissive to your BWC, but have Asian men remain entirely the same? Or perhaps you yourself have a submissive streak, and want Indians to be entirely dominant over White men and women? That's entirely possible with this! You may only select two different races, and how their men and women interact with another race(I.E. Have 2 different races act submissive towards a singular race, or have 2 different races act entirely dominant towards 2 other different races, etc). You can control how submissive/dominant one race, and their genders, are towards another race, from entirely submissive and subservient, to entirely dominant and domineering. All changes done before the start of a Jump are seamlessly integrated into said Jump, ensuring all changes are natural and viewed as a normal part of that setting's history.

Items

-License To Breed (100 CP)

You become the sole owner of a license, legal in every nation in the world, to breed freely. You are absolved from all parental duties and responsibilities as a result of these breedings, but only so long as you show the license directly to who you intend to breed before it happens. So long as someone is considered an adult, you can legally breed freely, and without consequence. This works on any being, so long as they are from an intelligent species, and all parties involved will permit this breeding to happen. Go to Sentinel Island and breed some native women(if the men don't kill you before you show them the card, that is)!

-Sex Toy Collection (100 CP)

A box, about the size of a stereotypical treasure chest, that contains any sexual or adult toy imaginable, from the setting you're currently in, or have ever been to. These toys dissolve into motes of sightless atoms after 24 hours outside the box, but otherwise contain no limits, so long as it could fit in the chest. Lubricants and clothes are considered toys, for the purposes of this item. Racially themed or branded products can be created on the fly by this chest, to cater to whatever form of interracial you intend to engage in, such as Blacked or Bleached products that don't actually exist.

-Passport (100 CP)

You now have automatically transforming, absolutely airtight legal documents. Always found whenever you have need of them, this item transforms into whatever documentation or passes necessary to allow travel to any nation's borders, no matter the circumstances involved. It also grants you 1st class travel, or its equivalent, free of charge when used. Want to taste some North Korean pussy as an American citizen? Be my guest.

-Hidden Camera (100 CP)

Porn is fun to watch, I agree, but making it is also something to be enjoyed. With this item, any sexual act or encounter you take part in will be recorded from the best possible angles, even though there was no camera in that location to begin with. After you are done with said encounter, the footage will be sent straight to a brand new computer stored within your Warehouse, with accessibility on every device you own. You can even choose to live stream these recordings, if you have something capable of activating a live-stream near your person, that is.

-Steady Cash (100 CP)

Alright, alright, I know this is probably the most boring option on this Jumpchain, but it's here regardless. The purchase of this item confers upon you a monthly stipend of $65,000 USD (c. 2020), entirely legal with all taxes and paperwork done for it. If you have some kind of bank account, it will be directly deposited there, otherwise it will simply appear as a check or briefcase of cash that you can freely use.

Companions

-Import Option (50 CP)

With this option you may bring in up to eight companions into this Jump, each of them gaining a stipend of 400 CP to spend. They do not gain origins, or any discounts.

-Harem (50 CP)

Perhaps you've grown attached to the interracial harem you've (hopefully) built? Well then this solves that issue, as you can now import all of your harem members gained in this Jump into future settings. They all count as a single Companion, and share any future purchases amongst themselves. This could also apply to just a single partner, if you didn't go for the whole harem aspect of things.

Drawbacks

-Supplement Mode (0 CP)

Don't particularly care for Earth, huh? Well, that's no matter. With this Drawback, you can take this Jumpchain as a supplement for another Jump as you please.

-World Changer (0 CP)

Don't like the three changes I made to this parallel Earth? That's totally cool, with this Drawback you can remove any, or all of them, for free.

-Setting Shift (0 CP)

Or perhaps you don't want to use this as a supplement, but also don't want to go to this version of Earth? Well then, I suppose I'll give you this option to pick from. You can go to any mundane setting/world, so long as it is one that has many different races from you to choose from for partners. You can choose to optionally lewd-ify that setting as well.

-STD's Galore (100 CP)

Unfortunately for you, and your companions, you are now very susceptible to STDs of any kind. Although no one on this world will be more likely to have STDs, if someone does have an STD and you engage in unprotected sex with them, expect to be almost guaranteed to contract it.

-Randomized Fetish (100 CP)

You must now pick 6 different fetishes that you have no particular care for, either positively or negatively, and roll a 1d6. Whatever you land on is now one of your topmost fetishes, at least within your top five most favorite.

-Sadistic Or Masochistic (200 CP/400 CP)

You must choose to either become a raging sadist, or a raging masochist. If you are sadistic, you cannot climax unless it somehow involves inflicting pain, not necessarily physical, to another person. If you are masochistic, you cannot climax unless it somehow involves receiving pain, not necessarily physical. Optionally, you can choose to have BOTH in which case you need to do both in order to ever achieve climax.

-Yandere Generator (200 CP)

Anyone you have sex with now has a 1 in 5,000 chance of becoming absolutely batshit insane yandere for you. Like, the kind of yandere that will murder your dog if you don't reciprocate their feelings because she gets so jealous. And no, you can't fix them.

-Two-Pump Chump (400 CP)

Let's hope you're ready to please your partners in other ways, because you sure as hell aren't using your dick for much. You become afflicted with a particularly nasty case of premature ejaculation, with about two pumps of someone's fist enough to make you blow your load no matter the circumstances. If you happen to not have a penis, then all of your male partners will instead be afflicted with this instead, but only when with you.

-Big Ass Bigot (400 CP)

Instead of being a normal person and appreciating interracial for its beauty, you are a downright bigot against all forms of interracial. It disgusts you, regardless of what form it takes. If someone isn't in a relationship, either romantic or sexual, with a member of their own race, you will become downright furious at it, though you might not confront them.

-WRONG RACE!!! (600 CP)

Regardless of your preferences, all forms of interracial in this world come in whatever kind you dislike the most, and none of what you enjoy will ever occur. Doesn't matter if you prefer WMAF, BMWF, IMAF, etc, if you like it it will never happen. If you happen to enjoy every kind of interracial, then interracial will become impossible altogether in this world. If you already dislike all forms of interracial (why the fuck are you here?!?!), then I suppose this is free CP.

-Aroace (600 CP)

Are you... sure about this? You lost all ability to feel romantic or sexual attraction for the duration of this Jump. Is taking the 600 CP worth this drawback, on a NSFW Jump of all things? I guess that's for you to decide.

NOTES

-These perks don't just apply to what some modern Earthlings consider 'race'. Instead, in future settings, or if you took the Supplement Mode Drawback, it can also apply to creatures of other species; so long as you are not a part of their race/species, any interracial perks can be applied to them.

-The amount of power granted by the Power Through Procreation and Union Between Peoples perks are rather vague, and I left that on purpose. You can personally decide what you think each Perk should grant, in terms of power, though do keep in mind Power Through Procreation is a 400 CP Perk, and Union Between Peoples is a 200 CP Perk.

-Shoutout to the creator of Generic Sex World, for a few ideas. I can't find the author's name, so I'll leave it blank until it is found.
