Stacey is the CEO of Family Equality. An organization that works with congress and state lawmakers to advance rights for current and future LGBTQ+ families. She describes herself as a former high school dropout turned corporate executive, tuned non-profit CEO. She is raising twin 8-year-old boys with her wife of nearly 17 years, Cheralyn. She regularly shares her experiences growing up LGBTQ+ in the rural South, being pulled out of the closet, and navigating life as a Black, Queer parent. In 2022, Stacey and her wife Cheralyn decided to relocate from Texas to Washington, DC, searching for a more affirming environment for their family. They are now committed more than ever to creating a safer and more inclusive world for LGBTQ+ families and youth.
