Demonstration Mini-Lesson Guidance

You are invited to prepare a 15-minute demonstration mini-lesson to teach to either a group of students or school staff who will play the role of students. Please submit your lesson plan to your point of contact at least 24 hours before your in-person interview. You may use any template for your lesson plan that you would like. We also ask that you bring at least five hard copies of your lesson plan to your in-person interview. To help you prepare your lesson plan, please respond to the scenario below. We look forward to learning from you!

Topic	Scenario
Grade Level, Subject, and Standard
Point in the School Year
Students' Strengths
Students' Needs
Lesson from the Previous Day
Click here to enter text.
Click here to enter text.

Important Disclaimer: Public Impact® and the Opportunity Culture® initiative endorse only the content in our own current materials provided to clients on our website, the Opportunity Culture® portal, or through current communications (emails, eblasts).This document includes content created and owned by Public Impact®. Public Impact® is not responsible for any inaccurate or illegal content, additions, or other modifications created by third parties, if any. We expressly disclaim any prior versions, once replaced, and we disclaim all third-party materials or content added by clients, their employees, or others that are not in compliance with federal, state, or local law. We cannot guarantee compliance with all state, local and changing federal laws, and we recommend that clients obtain legal review. Please see OpportunityCulture.org/terms-of-use.

© 2012-2026 Public Impact®/Opportunity Culture®

Opportunity Culture® is a registered trademark of Public Impact®; for details, see OpportunityCulture.org/terms-of-use