General English Test QUESTION PAPERS

Directions—(Q. 1 to 15) Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given below it. Certain words have been printed in bold to help you to locate them while answering some of the questions.

The Emperor's brother-in-law was also his Prime Minister and his favorite courtier. He was not liked by the other courtiers as a result. Jealous of the Emperor's brother in law the courtiers once said, "Your Majesty, why don't you appoint one of us as Prime Minister ?Subject us to a test to see who is truly the right person to be Prime Minister."At the time the Prime Minister was out hunting with another courtier.

In pursuit of their prey they mistakenly rode in to the neighbouring kingdom.As they were strangers and had weapons they were arrested as spies by the soldiers there and were certain to be sentenced to death by the ruler, King Amir.The courtier was petrified and bowed his head in prayer.

The Prime Minister pretending to be praying whispered something in his ear. The two of them then began arguing. "I should be the one to die first !"each of them said. Those present were astonished to hear their argument. The soldiers brought the two before King Amir. He was astonished to hear of their strange behavior."Tell me why you are so eager to die ?" Pretending to be reluctant to reveal the reason the Prime Minister bowed respectfully and said,"Sir, our Emperor has a secret wish of annexing your kingdom. If you kill us the Emperor can attack your kingdom on the pretext of avenging our deaths. The Emperor has also promised us a great reward for our sacrifice. We felt that in case you changed your mind and set one of us free to return home he would not get the reward."King Amir was worried when he heard this. Concerned that the lives of his subjects would be lost in war, King Amir refused to kill either of the two and sent them home. When they heard about the incident the Emperor's courtiers bowed their heads. They were ashamed. They realised the Emperor had made a wise choice in selecting his Prime Minister.
