1. Describe one of the dead bodies that the British soldier finds at the beginning of this chapter
2. Name two of the souvenirs or gifts exchanged by the men
3. During the truce, what specifically did the men do other than bury the dead?
4. Tell me about what at least one newspaper account wrote of the truce?
5. What animal did the men from both sides chase as though they were playing a football game (or tell me something else about that same encounter)
