

Isabella of Castile Statue

Statue Information

Located outside of the Organization of American States (OAS) Main Building, the statue is available for viewing at any time. No scheduling needed.

Introduction

This bronze statue of Queen Isabella of Castile was gifted by the Institute of Hispanic Culture of Madrid and dedicated on the 475th anniversary of Columbus first sighting the New World. As this statue is adjacent to the National Mall, this is a great stop to add onto your field trip to the other museums.

Recommended resources for DC teachers

DC Standards:

3-5.His2 Students pose relevant questions about events they encounter in historical documents, eyewitness accounts, oral histories, letters, diaries, artifacts, photographs, maps, artworks, and architecture.

3-5.His3 Students use nontext primary and secondary sources, such as maps, charts, graphs, photographs, works of art, and technical charts

9.5. Students analyze the geographic, political, religious, social, and economic structures of the civilizations of medieval Europe.