{firstname} this is how the best SEO agencies recruit new clients

{firstname} are you ready to get your best SEO clients?

Hello {firstname},

SEO is one of the most successful online agency businesses in existence. I know multiple SEO agencies who bank more than million dollars a year. They do it because they're good at identifying the issues in website ranking and packaging it for their prospects.

How about I help you do exactly the same?

This new SEO audit and crawling tool does this. It discovers all the issues and problems in a website. You can simply point it to any URL, do a crawl then export the issues in a CSV, send it to a prospect as a free gift or a conversation opener, and you could have a client for life.

This is a simple playbook that a lot of successful SEO agencies follow.

Local businesses are not SEO experts but they all want to rank. When they get helpful advice or assistance, there's a strong chance they will select the provider for their business.
