FACC will no longer maintain its own Resource Directory and will instead link to the SiuslawVision Resource Directory. That directory allows you to create and edit your own entry so that you can provide the public with your most current information. The Siuslaw Vision website where you can establish an account to create your own resource directory entry is: <https://SiuslawVision.org>. Siuslaw Vision also provides a means for sharing your events on their and others' community calendars and to submit a single press release to multiple newspapers and radio stations. The address for doing that is RiverCal.org. <https://www.rivercal.org/>

We are working to provide a means for online payment, but are not there yet. Please return this completed membership form with your check to:
