Privacy Policy

Last modified: May 17, 2024

JSNiedermaier ("we", "us" or "our") takes your privacy seriously. This privacy policy ("privacy policy" or "policy") explains our data protection policy and describes what information we may process, transfer and store when you install "Showroom" on your mobile device ("app", "application" or "service"). By using this application, you agree to the collection and use of information in accordance with this privacy policy.

Information we collect and why we collect it

1. Bug Reporting

The app is using Firebase Crashlytics ('Crashlytics') to monitor the app's stability.

Information we collect:

- Installation UUID (identifier)
- Crash stack traces

Why we collect it:

Although we strive to ensure a seamless user experience, unforeseen errors may occasionally occur within our app. While it is impossible to anticipate every potential issue across all devices, we utilize Firebase Crashlytics to promptly identify and address any unhandled errors. This enables us to swiftly deploy targeted patches, ensuring optimal performance and minimizing disruptions for our users.

Retention:

Crash stack traces and their associated identifiers are kept for 90 days.

2. Analytics

The app is using Google Analytics ('Analytics') to monitor the app's usage.

Information we collect:

- Number of users
- Session statistics
- Approximate geolocation
- Browser and device information

Why we collect it:

Google Analytics is employed within our app to gather valuable insights into user interactions and app performance. This helps us enhance the user experience by understanding usage patterns, identifying popular and unnoticed features, and pinpointing areas for improvement.

Retention:

Individual user data and associated identifiers are kept for 14 months. Aggregated data such as reports and campaign data are kept without automatic expiration.

Changes to this privacy policy

We may change this privacy policy from time to time. Most changes will presumably be minor only and will therefore not affect your rights.

Should there be any substantial changes to this policy with material effects on any of your rights or choices, you will be notified via a prominent notice within our services at least 30 days prior to such changes taking effect. This notification will include help on choices you may have regarding the treatment of your personal information.

For any less significant changes to this privacy policy that do not affect your rights or choices in a material way, we encourage all users to check this policy for updated versions periodically.

In general, the applicable version of this policy is the one that is current at the time of your access to our services.
