The Binghamton University Music Department is pleased to announce our 2025 - 2026 Concert Season, a series of performances celebrating music excellence through beloved classics and exciting new works.

Our season features more than 65 concerts, operas, guest artists, and faculty showcases so university students and community members can explore music that spans centuries, styles, and cultures.

The season opens on August 24th with The Greg Evans Trio in Casadesus Recital Hall with an eclectic mix of Jazz tunes. Other fall semester highlights will include a celebration of Latin American Art Song with Professor of Voice, contralto, Brenda Iglesias (Sept. 13); a residency with N.Y. Voices collaborating with the university choirs (Oct. 5); the Children's Opera: Sid the Serpent Who Wanted to Sing (Nov.16); and Harpur Jazz Week with guitarist Gabe Condon (Nov. 20).

Our spring semester is packed with even more outstanding performances. Some highlights include: the spring opera, Postcard From Morocco; artists-in-residence, HUB New Music, and the Binghamton University Symphony Orchestra featuring a special guest.

As always, the department has outstanding ensemble performances to look forward to in both semesters. Audiences can come and see concerts with the University Wind Symphony, The Binghamton University Symphony Orchestra, the Percussion Ensemble and Steel Drum Band, Collegium Musicum early music Ensemble, the Nukporfe African Drumming and Dance Ensemble, our Piano, Low Brass, Flute, Guitar Ensembles, and so much more.

We hope you will join us!
