Pleasure to make your acquaintance Ms. bateman

Did you grow up enjoying stuff being blown up as a holiday?

Well of course you did! Dumb question: am I right who doesn't.

Every year around the second week of June, My family and I traveled to Lake Erie, Ohio to see the most magnificent fireworks you'd lay your eyes on. You would definitely consider yourself in a movie, breathtaking you could say.

But did you ask yourself Why it's a holiday? How did it ever become a holiday?

If so head on over to My Friends John's Blog, so he can answer all your unanswered questions about this mysterious Holiday.

What are you waiting for! Be Explosive
