BMSA Application for Medical Discussions Committee

This application deadline is Thursday, September 18th at 11:59 PM. Applications should be e-mailed to carson_tate1@baylor.edu with the subject “Medical Discussions Committee Application.” This position requires great sensibility to handle difficult subject matters, including mental health, grief, and ethics, with tact. I will select members that are not only capable of handling sensitive situations but also show great character traits, like dedication, amiability, and maturity. You will be contacted by Saturday morning if you proceed to the interview stage, and receive an interview time Saturday afternoon or Sunday morning and afternoon on ZOOM. Please send any questions, comments, or concerns to carson_tate1@baylor.edu.

Description:

The Medical Discussions committee is dedicated to providing a safe, welcoming environment to BMSA members. In this provided environment, committee members challenge perspectives and foster deeper levels of thinking about medicine and life. M.D. committee members will be expected to lead workshops on academia and facilitate discussions amongst peers and professors. Members will also participate in other, more social, events at the discretion of the Medical Discussion’s Chair.
