

SL: We're entering a new era

Hey {{ subscriber.first_name }},

Successful students are popping off more than ever.

40 years ago,

You had to have loads of experiences just to be successful,

But this isn't the case anymore...

Let me show you why.

You see,

Your student years are the most important time of your life.

Prioritize development and you'll live a life of freedom.

Prioritize video games and you'll depend on making your boss happy.

You see, if you don't learn key skills like:

- How to study effectively and work
- Self-discipline
- And the student creator model

Then you'll get CRUSHED by EVERYONE around you.

Because someone is taking action every second you don't.

Leading you further and further behind.

Look, I used to be a "normal" student,

Cranking up as much studying before a test,

Playing video games all day,

And most importantly,

Feeling Directionless.

But it's now having built a physique I'm proud of,

Making thousands online,

And feeling more confident than ever,

That I understand how important your student years are.

And we're helping so many students across the globe make this change.

Changing my life. 🤖💡❄️🏋️

When I first saw Spark, I felt a "spark 💡" (lol). This was during my Christmas break.

When Superior Students+ was launched, I debated whether I should get it or not... for some reason, I thought $13 was unaffordable.

But when I thought about it, it ONLY costs two Starbucks coffees to access some serious resources.

Let me explain how it has changed me:

I was a decent student but deep down, I always wanted to be a student creator.

Superior Students+ has created a powerful space where I can experiment with my videos and see what works. Getting feedback about how to do things from Spark is also super helpful.

Also, even though I "know" how to study, the modules are extremely helpful in reminding me of how to get into the flow state, the 80/20 rule, and more.

This has given me the strength and confidence to improve my grades (latest UBC midterm: 81.4% percent with a 67.5% class average), post a video every day for the past 3 weeks, and meet some amazing people.

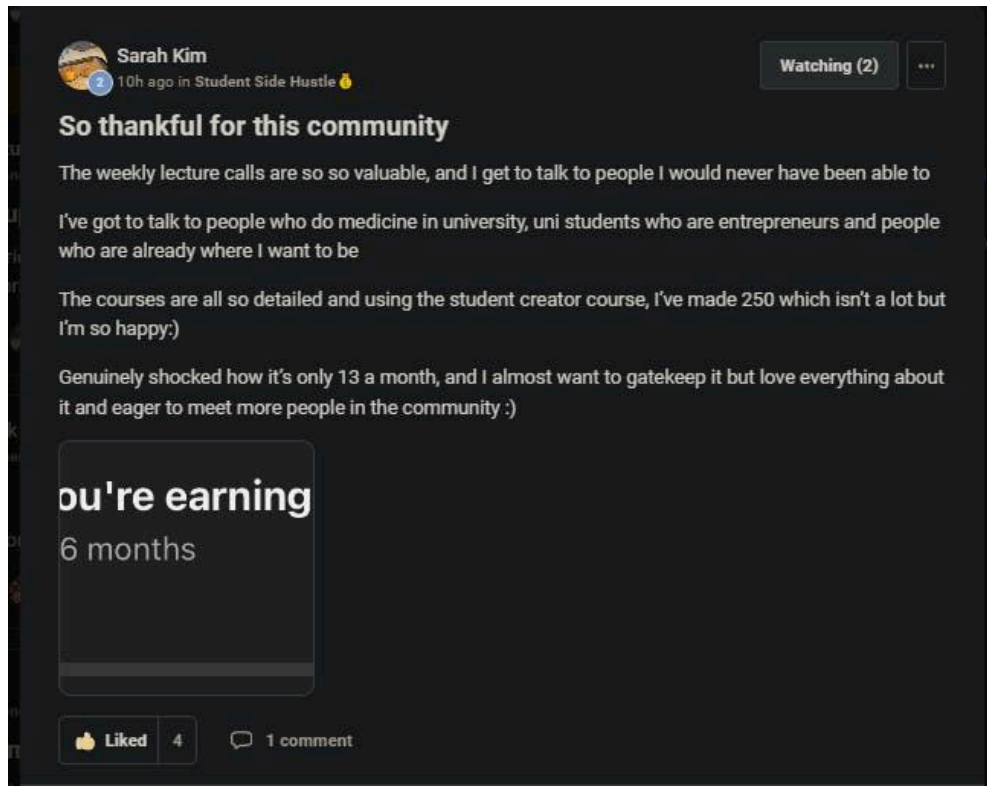

I highly recommend joining Superior Students+.

I have found that $13 into myself is the best decision I've made all month.

PS. Becoming an early member has been super awesome for me since he puts in random surprise benefits. We get more attention since there are only 5-10 people in here lmao.
