

Hi,

I'm writing on behalf of Carrie Rollwagen of the Localist podcast — it's a podcast that profiles local business owners here in Birmingham.

We're putting together a guide for holiday shopping, and I'd love to include your business! We wanted to include some information about what the holiday season looks like this year, so we have questions like whether or not you offer delivery or curbside pickup, what your favorite gifts are for this year, whether or not you have special hours, etc.

Do you have five minutes to fill out this survey? It's free, and we'll be able to share your contact information with the Localist listeners!

Thank you so much!
