Do you want to test candy?

February 2021

There is a candy company in Canada called Candy Funhouse. The company wants new workers to test its new candy and chocolate. The pay is $30 per hour.

The company sells 3,000 kinds of candies. The new workers will test 10 new candies. They will test the taste and quality.

The new workers will write two sentences about each new candy. They must love candy. They must not have food allergies. They must be able to write in English.
