BirdieBlue

Founded in Stowe, Vermont, BirdieBlue is a woman led, outdoor adventure brand on a mission to save as many clothes from the landfill as possible by upcycling old, discarded ski and snowboard gear into personality filled, sustainably created accessories...think fanny packs, zipper pouches, and sling bags. BirdieBlue is seeking a flexible, hard-working individual with an entrepreneurial spirit to join our small but growing team in Vermont! This position is a part-time, work from home role.

You!

The ideal candidate is detailed oriented team member dedicated to high quality work delivered on time and on budget. You bring experience working with various types of fabric and thread to create or modify various accessories and bags. You will be part of a small, cross-functional team, trained to support all steps of BirdieBlue manufacturing and upcycling process. We're looking for someone who is creative, shares a passion for sustainability, can be flexible, find solutions instead of problems, and is looking for a position with the potential for growth.

Are you...

- Technically proficient in sewing?
- Proficient in the use of industrial sewing machinery and embroidery equipment?
- A detail and deadline-oriented person?
- Reliable, with regards to attendance, punctuality and quality of work?
- Flexible to perform tasks such as cutting as needed?

Are you ready to...

- Work from the comfort of your own on your own schedule?
- Be a part of a cohesive team that values teamwork?
- Produce consistent high-quality product?

What you'll love about working for BirdieBlue:

- Flexible schedule and hours
- Potential for career growth
- BirdieBlue employee discount codes

- Perks including Vermont Area Attractions discounts
- And many more!

To apply: Send resume and/or portfolio and a short note explaining why you want to join the BirdieBlue team at hello@shopbirdieblue.com. BirdieBlue deeply values diversity and inclusivity. We strongly encourage traditionally under-represented candidates to apply.
