

Terms & Conditions for Lav's Commissions/Etc.

Updated: 02/05/24

GENERAL

- All prices are per subject, in USD. This means that if you order a piece with two subjects/characters/people/etc., you pay the displayed price twice, regardless if the subjects are in the same or separate pieces.
- The maximum number of subjects I will accept from any commissioner at a time is two (2). Please inquire about longer-term arrangements if you need more pieces/subjects.
- Additional fees may be added for complex/extra subjects, props, poses, backgrounds, etc.
- Additional fees may be added for subjects/concepts without visual references. (Even Google'd image references/drawings by "non-artists" are helpful!!)
- I can draw: original characters, fanart, nudity, NSFW (not safe for work), monsters, animals, concept art, robots, brand identity designs, you, etc.
- I am not likely to accept commissions for geometrically-heavy works, i.e. buildings, cars, bikes, etc. or anything requiring an extensive background.
- For what I will and won't do for NSFW art, please see the end of this document.
- Your commission may be declined for any reason.

PAYMENT & REFUNDS

- I require your full total up front, but I will not ask for payment until I am ready to begin working on your piece.
- If at the sketch approval phase, you choose not to proceed with the commission, partial refunds may be given at my discretion.
- Paypal is recommended. For other payment options, please ask.
- Friends, family, former clients, and mutuals are eligible for discounts. I will discuss them with you privately, but don't be afraid to ask if you qualify.

ETA

- I try to be very upfront when accepting commissions about how long your piece will take me. For smaller works, such as a black and white pencil sketch, your turnaround might be anywhere from one to four days or so, depending on my day job. For larger/more intensive works, it may take well over two weeks. I am NOT a fast artist, but I will be very communicative about my estimates and current workload ahead of time, and during, to make sure you're never left wondering what is happening with your piece.

Updated: 02/05/24

- If you need a rush order/something ready by a certain time, please talk to me. We can likely work something out, but rush orders are subject to additional fees.

USAGE (APPLIES TO ANY WORK YOU MAY RECEIVE FROM ME - EVEN FREE WORK)

- All work is for private/personal use only unless you have specifically arranged for commercial-use work. You are completely free to use images as icons/banners/etc., to print them out, to upload on a character reference page/database (i.e. Toyhouse) (with proper credit, please!), go wild.
- I am permitted to do whatever I want with the finished piece (such as portfolio use or social media posts), as long as I use it non-commercially. Exceptions are made for commercial work, or if you specifically request I keep the commission private.
 - Note: private commissions are subject to additional fees; I will strongly prefer to retain the right to post the piece on my personal Discord server. This is discussable.)

NSFW-SPECIFIC TERMS

- If you are commissioning NSFW pieces, you must be a legal adult (18+).
- I will happily draw: any gender, BDSM elements, monsters, most humanoid species, toys/machines, lingerie (I can design at no extra charge), costumes, roleplay scenarios.
- Grey area that is situation dependent: furies, gore, anything involving any inflation, unusual costumes (clowns, etc.).
- Hard No's: racist or race-focused content, anything non-consensual/dubiously consensual, real people (nudes/pinups are completely fine though!), any character you do not have the rights to (this means NO NSFW FAN ART, but for pieces intended to be gifts, please contact me to discuss), vore, physically impossible insertions, incest, flatulence, defecation, vomit, futa/"shemale"/etc. subjects, actual animals, furies possessing real-life animal genitalia, anything sexualizing children/childhood (diapers, age play, "aged up" characters, pregnancy, etc.), body fluid kinks (lactation, sweat, urine, etc.).
- For anything not specifically listed, please don't hesitate to ask. I hold zero judgement (for anything that isn't a criminal act, of course - and if that is what you want, I am not your artist). Feel free and safe to contact me with any questions.

Thank you again for your interest!
