

family history questions

- What what is the date and place of your birth?
- 1940 in kansas city
- What what is the name and date of the birth of your parents
- Larry Sr 1913 Mary Francis 1915
- What was it like being a teenager?
- world was different very few people had cars he rode a bicycle around
- What were you learning at this time in your life?
- most of the time if you lied it came back and bit you. learning to be honest
- What was college like for you? Did you have a favorite area of study?
- Math was his best subject and liked science a little bit.
- What did you do in your twenties/thirties?
- he was working and dating his future wife had a decent job and had saved his money and bought a house
- What were your jobs during this time? What were they like to work at?
- was a salesman in the apparel business he would sell to manufacturers
- Were there any significant others that came into your life at this time?
- was 23 when he got married
- How did they influence you?
- she is a very nice person and has good morals. She would help him do the right thing when he didn't want to.
- How/when did you meet your future husband/wife?
- a friend he met in college and him were sitting in a drive in and his friend got him a date with her
- What discoveries did you make during this time?
- learned that the basics of life hardly ever change and saw a big difference between him and his friends who would spend all their money he would save all his money.
- How did that experience influence who you are today.
- He forced himself to save his money and it gave him the money to invest and start his life.

- How did having children affect you?
- You no longer have freedom you had before and you have much more responsibility and it changed the way he looked at life.
- What are you most proud of?
- He is most proud of my mother and the rest of his children and they are all very special to him.
- What has affected you and your family most?
- having children and since he cared so much it changes your life and if there are any issues including them he shares their problems.
- What has been the most significant change you see in yourself?
- As he got older he started realizing how much more important it is to try to be generous and nice and he learned he could change the way he is.
- What is a typical day like for you now?
- he works at a golf course and he goes to the movies plays golf enjoys reading and working around the house
- During this time, what is of most importance to you?
- probably without a close second family
- Talk about your life philosophy. What values do you hold most dear?
- honesty, integrity
- If you were to live your life over again, what would you do differently or change?
- without much thought he wouldn't change much he did make little mistakes but nothing else he would really change.
- What would you keep the same?
- marrying my grandmother and having all the kids
- What are you most grateful for?
- his health and the health of his family
- What were your major achievements?
- getting my grandma to marry him and having great children
- What are your future plans?
- he would like to be able to live the lifestyle he has
- What is your family legacy?
- We all have had fortunate lives and good healthy children and lives. teaching our children how to live their lives independently