Many people who interacted with CJ have provided their own experience, please treat each person with respect as they worked up courage to notify someone about CJ's behaviour, we very much credit them for doing so.

We also ask to please not harass anyone involved in this situation. This document was made to spread insight on Yocjstar and his own behavior.

WHO IS YOCJSTAR?

If you are active on YouTube or Discord, and you have received a DM from a “ROBLOX animator” vouching that popular youtubers are working for his film, you may have heard of “CJFilms”.

Based on our knowledge, Yocjstar is a Roblox animator with less than 100 subscribers on YouTube who is previously working on his own Piggy film known as “Piggy: The Lost Cure”. It is known that he has two Roblox accounts and a reddit account, which he does not use anymore.

MISTREATMENT + POOR MANAGEMENT

Mentioned before in this document, Yocjstar is the owner of his Piggy animated film “Piggy: The Lost Cure”. Over the past couple days, he has been recruiting voice actors, animators, etc. to assist him with his film.

On July 28th, when Sylwia, the owner of this document, joined CJ’s film as a voice actress, the server where production of the film showcased how there were “no rules”, meaning people could do whatever they wanted. However, those rules would go wrong as CJ and his team would force her to voice act in a “voice acting event”. She kept getting pinged as she stated she had plans in real life, but unfortunately, the whole team did not care about her response.

To make the matters worse, whenever Sylwia would ask questions, the team, including CJ, would respond negatively, causing chaos.

Keep in mind that Sylwia first joined as an investigator and a spy after receiving a warning about CJ by nathan_hickman.

Bob is a voice actor for CJFilms, who gave negative responses.

Apollo is also a voice actor for CJFilms, who also gave negative responses to Sylwia.*

CJ would then timeout and kick her out of the server for “not participating in an important event even when told” despite the fact she had an important reason as to why she couldn’t make it.

Even though a reason was stated why Sylwia couldn’t come for a bit, she was still nearly muted (command failed due to not high enough hierarchy for that person.)

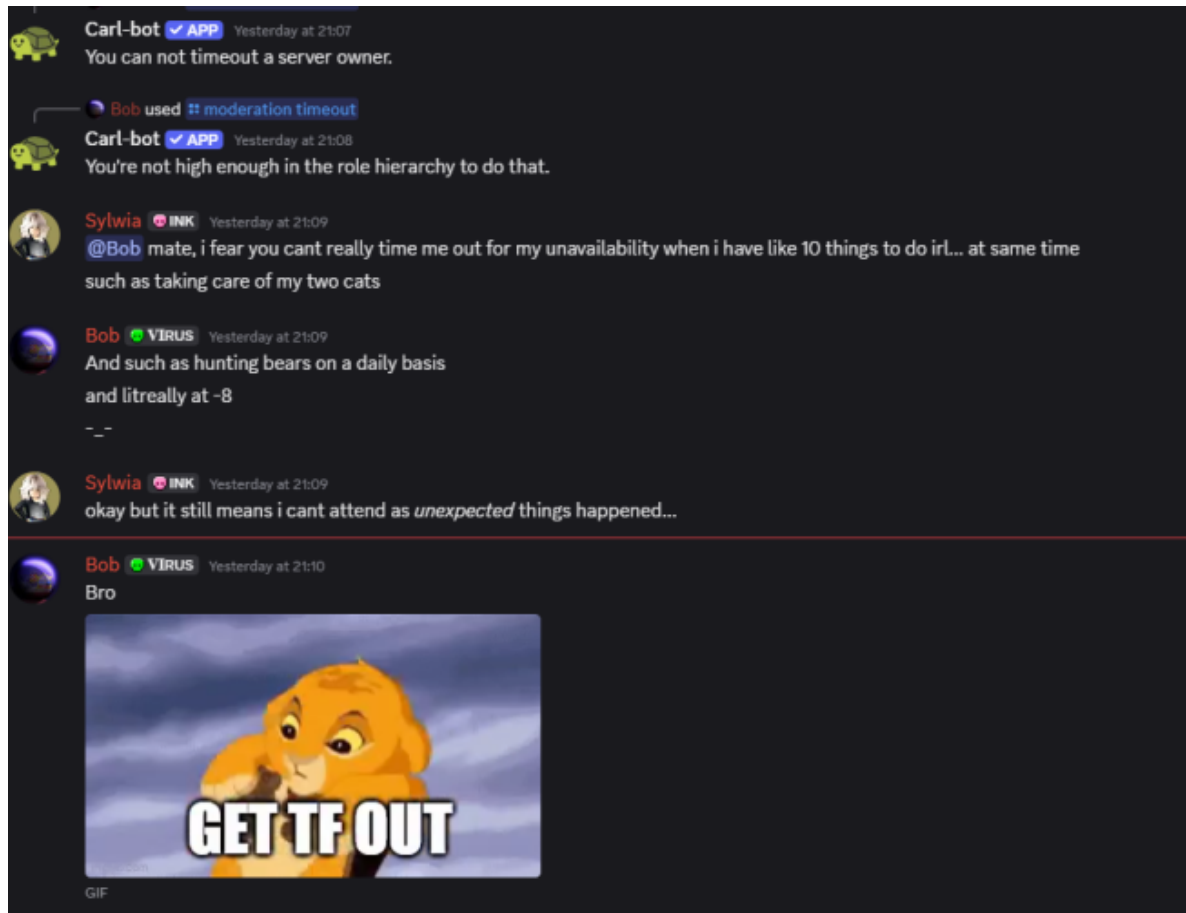

Right after, she got kicked from the server... Not great management and professionalism.

Attempted to act like he wasn't the one who kicked even though Sylwia provided evidence.

Lying and refusing to take accountability as a server manager.

Another moment of Bob's disrespectful behavior.

During production of his series, CJ would often change voice-acting roles without reminding the voice actors, as well as recasting them without hearing their own opinions. Not very professional.

Leafboi, a voice actor, would keep getting recast. He originally was going to voice Giraffy, but CJ gave him the new role as Baren, then Tigry out of nowhere without telling or negotiating with him.

MANIPULATION + EDITING

MESSAGES

CJ would force people to have himself promoted based on his own film. Those people were his co-workers and an alternative account.

"Reply to the message I sent in the server act like ur interested " Oh! We're creating a fake audience, are we now... Yikes!"

Some people responded to CJ. Keep in mind that XenoAnimations was his alternative account.

But, that is not even the worst part in this section. From how he would recruit people, he would only DM some Piggy animators to recruit them, while promising that popular animators like Snookums was working on the film.

Snookums was in fact NOT working on the film.

REAL DM: CJ DM'ed Quintrell Jenkins Animations asking if he was interested in working on the film.

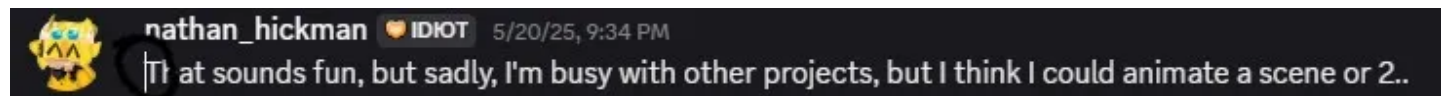

Now, considering that the photo above didn't look so bad as Quintrell politely refused, you may think he is not liable. However, it is known he would edit people's messages and lie to people saying these "animators" would work with him.

EDITED DM: CJ edited the last message, showing that Quintrell “thought” about joining. Quintrell has never said the last message, but only refused.

REAL DM: CJ DM’ed nathan_hickman too asking if he was interested in working on the film, message above ^ shows his original message.

EDITED DM: CJ edited the message above. Again, the little writing mark at the front + the h looks a bit odd and obviously edited.

CJ was then later caught by MalakaiSa_8, a Piggy animator + witness, for using a chrome add-on to edit people's messages.

CJ would also use a website version as an alternative to edit messages.

RACISM, HOMOPHOBIA + NSFW

Having anger issues, CJ would bluntly use homophobic and racial slurs on DM's with some people, including former friends and co-workers.

CJ admitted to “expressing his emotions” by the use of homophobic slurs.

More messages of CJ refusing to take accountability.

CJ using the f-slur, and a bunch of other slurs.

CJ would own a server for his own, but unfortunately, would have members who say the hard-r and send people nsfw.

Credits to @darealcjg on X for mentioning the server back in September 2024.

Original Tweet:

<https://x.com/darealcjg/status/1833245137306091601?s=46>

CJ was formally known as Gamerdev Animates, the person who owned the server. Meta, a Piggy animator, confronts him about nsfw on his server.

A member of the server named AM would send nsfw + call Tiny CJ, an animator, the n-word, including the hard r. This shows that his position as server manager was not professional and this could have been avoided with better moderation.

I'm in ptlc server but I'm not workin for cj, I ignore him and just try to find more info Abt him and what he does and expose him, he is a HUGE liar (edited)

And I find It funny

That in the rules it says no racism

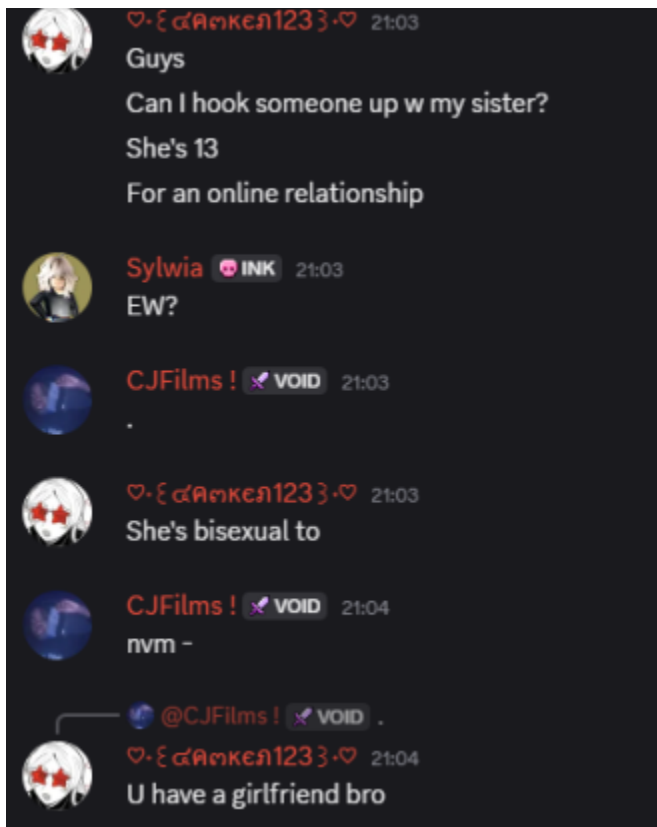

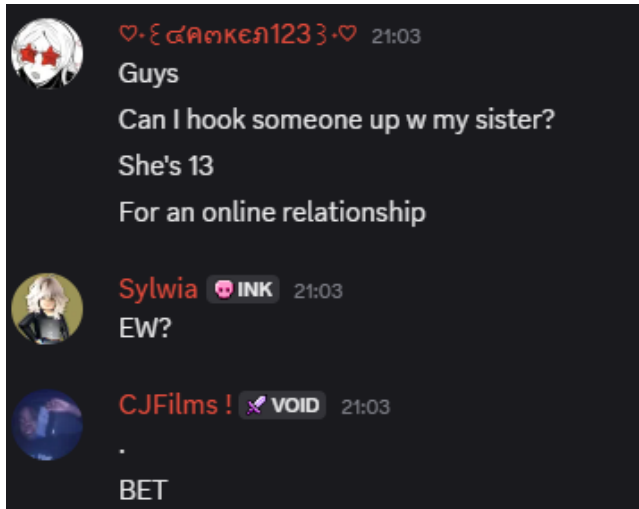

But he is racist, as you have said

An anonymous user, who worked for CJ, also admitted that he is a racist.

CJ's co-workers' behavior, possibly joking, with no moderation being held, making his own team uncomfortable.

Speaking of CJ's co-workers, they would promote online-dating and hookups to one another. CJ would be on this while having a girlfriend, attempting to cheat on her.

Damken, who voices for CJ, is looking for someone to hook up with his underaged sister. CJ, who had a girlfriend, would accept the hookup, but reject it after finding out she was bisexual.

CJ's co-worker would also promote pedophilia in the server..

“Age is just a number” That’s pedophilia, bro.

“Jail is just a place”

STEALING + HACKING

Let this be a keynote that CJ’s film: Piggy: The Lost Cure” is unoriginal and a copy. It was proven that the original owner of The Lost Cure is actually Uzziah, as he himself mentioned that the “server” was not owned by him.

Uzziah admitted that the server Kenny, a YouTuber, mentioned was not his and had no correlation with CJ.

During the production of his series, it was proven that CJFilms stole models from the hit Piggy fangame, Branched Realities by Wizard Watch Studios, without permission or credit.

A snapshot taken by CJ using those models. Branched Realities model for Willow is there as well, next to Pony.

One of the worst news possible regarding CJ is his ability to hack. Back on July 1st, he would send an image of the “prison baseplate” used in nathan_hickman’s fanmade series, Piggy Series Life.

Remember that CJ had no access to the private server of the series nor to the baseplate, and no one from the private server took that exact screenshot.

Unfortunately, there are no screenshots at the time proving to how and why CJ would have that image, but here is one of our theories:

Around early July, xeddix, an animator for Piggy Series Life + someone who knew CJ at the time, would get hacked out of nowhere. xeddix had access to the baseplate, and we assume CJ was responsible for hacking xeddix. We assume he went into the baseplate and took a screenshot.

CJ took a picture of Roblox Studio in xeddix's account, including the baseplates used for Piggy Series Life: Season Two.

CJ, who uses the account “ResortImpressive3933” on Reddit, admitted to hacking an account while doing a Piggy Skin trade.

CJ also creeps into people’s social media accounts and steals images and renders.

JiJi, a voice actress, discovers that the image, which CJ claims it's from his house, was actually from her X account instead.

*ClosetChea_t, who is investigated to be CJ's alternative account, stole a render from PghLF*Im as you can see a watermark and credited as his own. Gon was also suspicious of CJ for stealing models.*

Speaking of PghLF*Im, CJ would gain tons of “inspiration” from the RP Films, to the point where he copies the whole script for his film.

CJ established the script from the RP Films to his voice-acting channel.

*"AH" a bit obvious copy from PghLF*Ims.*

STALKING

This section will possibly be short as there was little evidence.

It was proven that CJ created an alternative account named “XenoAnimations”, to stalk his former co-worker/friend, then proceeded to respond in disrespectful behavior.

CJ admits to Gamerboy096w that his alt account was his, then replying to him with a disrespectful tone.

NO ACCOUNTABILITY +

PEOPLE'S EXPERIENCE

Let us start this section by saying that CJ was exposed previously twice before, but despite his warnings, he still refused to take accountability, refused to apologize to his co-workers, and he makes up excuses.

CJ mentions that he is trying to change, but the first section of this document above, proves he isn't.

Attempting to take accountability, but he blames it through depression and on Andrew, despite the fact he used slurs in his DMs.

First i wanna know what he did
Okay
So we both used to work on a game
a Piggy Fangame
One day while we were talking in the VC about the future of the game
He went out and gived his opinion on a certain friend of mine
Wont tell the name for certain reasons
He talked about how that friend of mine was a bitch and a kid Who didn't know what he did
On the internet
Ofc my friend was offended when i told him about it

Dude
The "friend of mine"
Is related to me
I could have lost someone from my family
Someone i knew for years
He also was a Dick about how bad of a dev i was at the time

PM He talked about how that friend of mine was a bitch and a kid Who didn't know what he did
On the internet
Ofc my friend was offended when i told him about it
And he started talking about how he wanted to yk
But fortunetly he didnt
He is good and healthy now
And he doesn't want to kill h*mself anymore
Still Cj highly offended him
And that's why he quit the community for good Anyways that's all

An anonymous user explains his experience with CJ, about how CJ disrespected the anonymous user's friend.

Do what u gotta do atp

The “her” mentioned in this screenshot is Sylwia.

Luna’s experience with CJ.

One thing about CJ in which it is alleged for now, and one of the main reasons for this document to why harassment is not permitted for him is because CJ is underaged. During Luna's experience, she claims that CJ is currently 12-13 years old, but there is currently no proof of him being underaged.

 Luna/ghost  3:30 PM
Yeah sorry i couldn't provide much!
.. however i do know hes 12 last i was in there

 nathan_hickman  3:30 PM
When did your experience happen?

 Luna/ghost  3:31 PM
Uhh dunno actually - maybe a couple of months?
..or less- could check

 CJFiL...  05/14/2025 11:03 PM
Alr
Ur line is tigry over here. In a serious way

 Luna/...  05/14/2025 11:04 PM
wait so- "Tigry over here. " ?
..btw what kind of voice do you want for willow okay- ill just do it

 CJFilm...  05/14/2025 11:19 PM
You done!!?????

Seba, a former co-worker of CJ, admitting that he was forced into a voice-call.

However, the last piece of evidence in this section is how CJ hires underaged people, while he owned a server filled with racism + nsfw.

CJ hires “BerryBerry” knowing she is 12 years old.

FINAL THOUGHTS

We have mentioned this twice, and we will say this one more time. Please do not harass anyone, including CJ, who was involved in this situation.

The whole document was written and provided by the people who once received DM's from this individual himself who still wouldn't change and realize the consequences of his actions.

It's important to treat people with respect and provide a safe and fun community. No one should be treated with negativity at all.

Overall, this is a message from myself, Sylwia to CJ.

Time has to come that you get exposed, you had a very big switch up since I joined your server and I hope this makes you rethink your entire actions and hopefully, you turn out to be better person and not listen to others on what to do but rather think what is the most logical thing to do as a server owner as you will never catch me DEAD kicking out someone for being busy.

Farewell,
Your dearest investigator, Sylwia.

DeveloperAidan and his team's statement to CJ.

I have to address something and there will be more information shared. I recently kicked someone off my team. But before I kicked them off the only reason I invited them in the first place was because I was gonna give them a second chance but i found out more allegations came out about them and no!

I'm not talking about any other members of my team anyone on my team right now is innocent and not involved in any drama but this person has been known for doing a lot of bad things but a document will be posted shortly on the individual soon

I don't want you to think I'm involving you or myself in drama but this person is a liability to any small Piggy animation teams or small Roblox animation teams in general if the individual I'm anonymously referring to knows I'm talking to them you better hear the words I say. get out and stay out of the Piggy community... you don't belong in it.. us animators and artists are creative and original with our art and stealing is not creative. Thank you all for reading... Love you all ❤️
