

This is what the company posted on their website:

The Problem

Most traders end up losing money due to a lack of emotional discipline and not having a backtested strategy that works.

The Solution

EzAlgo takes the guesswork out of trading, giving you real-time buy & sell signals so you can confidently identify profitable entries and exits.

The Result

Trade any market with ease using our algorithmic-based confirmations and finally become a profitable trader.

They have a very boring opt-in page that just says “click here for 20% off” so i decided to make a new headline for their opt-in.
