Community Outreach and Knowledge Dissemination Activities of the Jenne Lab (2013-2020)

2020 – Moderator/Host for University of Calgary Mini-Medical School public lecture on Vaping Associated Lung Disease presented by Dr. Paul Kubes and Dr. Patrick Mitchell

2020 – Panel Member Anatomy of a Pandemic: Infection control vs. isolation – striking a balance for long-term care residents during COVID 19 hosted by the University of Calgary O'Brien Institute for Public Health. Panel members included Dr. Jim Silvius, Dr. Ewa, Mr. Morishita and Ms. Pool, moderated by Dr. David Hogan

2020 – Panel Member for CBC Alberta's Facebook Live Event on a "Deep Dive into Alberta's COVID-19 Numbers" moderated by Andrew Brown. Panel members included CBC Health Reporter Jennifer Lee and CBC Data Journalist Robson Fletcher

2020 – Moderator/Host for University of Calgary Mini-Medical School public lecture on Mental Health and the Microbiome presented by Dr. Kathy McCoy and Dr. Valerie Taylor

2020 - Flu season is upon us – University of Calgary UToday article, Marta Cyperling - https://www.ucalgary.ca/news/flu-season-upon-us-0

2020 – COIVD and Animals: What We Do and Don't Know About Spread – Faculty of Veterinary Medicine Alumni Month Presentations, co-presented with Dr. Doug Whiteside and Dr. Rebecca Archer, Dr. Herman Barkema Moderator

2020 – Met with the staff of St. Catherine Elementary School to discuss the facts around COVID in the classroom

2020 – Snyder Institute Ask and Expert – Moderated an online public engagement session on COVID19: To mask or not to mask? presented by Dr. John Conly

2020 – Snyder Institute Ask and Expert – Moderated an online public engagement session on COVID19: Why are Children "Immune" to COVID-19? presented by Dr. Susa Benseler

2020 – Snyder Institute Ask and Expert – Moderated an online public engagement session on COVID19: What will "normal" look like? p resented by Dr. Chris Mody

2020 – COVID Corner: Lessons Learned from the Last Three Months – Online webinar designed for health care professionals but open to the public. Series hosted by the University of Calgary Office of Continuing Medical Education and Professional Development. Co-presented with Dr. Deena Hinshaw and Dr. Lynora Saxinger.

2020 - COVID-19 - Flattening the curve – Podcast series hosted by Nuvyn Peters - Vice President, Development at University of Calgary

2020 - Coronavirus and the Impact on Travel - presented information regarding the need for travel restrictions, how long they may be in place and how the current pandemic may change things in the future - Travel Media Association of Canada (TMAC) Prairies and NWT, moderated by Paula Worthington.

2020 - Video to disseminate knowledge about the coronavirus to improve public understanding produced and posted by the University of Calgary Cumming School of Medicine and distributed through the University of Calgary social media accounts @UCalgary and @UCalgaryMed

2020 - Public Lecture at the Snyder Institute Mini Medical School discussing vaccines and cancer.

2019 - Stem Cell Talks - presentation to approximately 250 high school students about how the immune system works and how we can engineer immune responses to drug-resistant infections and cancer.

2019 - Science Communication in the Age of "Fake News": The Role of Science in the Media – round table panel with members of the media and research community discussing the role of science in media.

2018 - PechaKucha 20x20 Calgary "Trials" – public engagement evening run by Alberta Theater Projects on the future of cancer immunotherapy trials.

2018 - Immunology in the Classroom, led an education outreach program in Centennial High School in Calgary were faculty and trainees from the University of Calgary led a round-table discussion of what immunology is and how it affects the everyday lives of the students.

2018 - Taking Immunology into the Classroom, Snyder Institute community outreach where teams of researchers and trainees delivered lectures and hands-on experiments in local high schools in observation of World Immunology Day.

2017 - Immunology in the Classroom, led an education outreach program in Centennial High School in Calgary were faculty and trainees from the University of Calgary led a round-table discussion of what immunology is and how it affects the everyday lives of the students.

2017 - Speaker for the Canberra Health Annual Research Day Career Development workshop for High School students.

2017 - Taking Immunology into the Classroom, Snyder Institute community outreach where teams of researchers and trainees delivered lectures and hands-on experiments in local high schools in observation of World Immunology Day.

2017 - Public Lecture at the Snyder Institute Mini Medical School describing what vaccines are and how they work.

2016 – Speaker and Host Laboratory for a program to introduce at risk youth to careers in STEM.

2016 – Speaker for the Canadian Medical Hall of Fame Discovery Day – presented to students from high schools across Calgary about what medical research is and encouraged them to pursue a career in STEM.

2016 – Speaker for UFlourish Lunch and Learn – presented to the public about the link between immunity, neural function, mood and stress.

2016 – Speaker and Host Laboratory, for potential donors to the Canadian Cancer Society's Research Institute

2015 – Speaker and Host Laboratory, for the Alberta Innovates Health Solutions Summer Teacher Workshop – presented current research techniques and conducted a laboratory tour for high school science teachers.

2015 – Consultant for Western Silvicultural Contractors' Association - Provided information on the surveillance, prevalence and prevention of Lyme disease.

2014 - Co-organizer, Alberta Sepsis Network World Sepsis Day community engagement event at the Telus Spark Science Center

2014 – Speaker and Host Laboratory, for the Alberta Sepsis Network Education Day - presented current research techniques /progress in sepsis and conducted a laboratory tour for intensive care nursing staff from Calgary and Edmonton.

2014 – Speaking engagement to present current research at the Rotary Club of Calgary Millennium

2014 – Speaking engagement to present current research at the Rotary Club of Calgary Fish Creek

2013 – Laboratory tour for the Heart and Stroke Foundation of Canada