

Youth Drawing and Writing Competition: Celebrating Women's History Month

Join Us in Celebrating Women's History Month!

To honor the remarkable contributions of women throughout history, we are delighted to announce a drawing and writing competition for youth. This competition is open to all young artists and writers who wish to express their creativity and celebrate the achievements of women.

Theme: Women's History Month

Categories:

- Drawing: Illustrate a woman or women who have inspired you.
- Writing: Write a short story or poem about a woman who has significantly impacted history or your life.

Submission Guidelines:

- Submissions should be original work.
- Drawings should be scanned or photographed in high resolution.
- Written entries should be typed, single-spaced, with a font size of 12, at least 200 words, and no more than 500 words.
- Submit your work via Google Form [link to be inserted].

Prizes:

Winners will be selected from each category and announced on May 11, 2024. Prizes include [list prizes].

New Year Magazine content: A New Year celebration magazine should capture the essence of the event and the organization. Here are some suggestions for what to include:

1. Messages:

- A message from the president highlighting the achievements of the past year and expressing hopes and goals for the upcoming year.
- A message from the coordinator thanking everyone for their support and participation in the event.
- A message from the editor and other alumni organization presidents or secretaries on the significance of the celebration in the community.

2. Photo Album:

- A collection of photographs from the New Year celebration showcasing event highlights, performances, and participants.

3. Sponsored Content:

- Advertisements or sponsored articles from businesses or organizations that have supported the event or have a connection to the community.

4. Articles and Features:

- Story of the New Year celebration.
- Vantara story from campus life
- Articles about the history and significance of the New Year celebration.

Recognizing individuals who have demonstrated consistent excellence over time or who have made a lasting impact in their field.

8. Advertisements:

- Advertisements from local businesses or services that cater to the community.

9. Art and Creativity:

- Artwork, poems, or other creative submissions from community members.

10. Thank You Section:

- A section dedicated to thanking sponsors, volunteers, and participants for their contributions to the event and the organization.

5. Event Recap:

- A recap of the New Year celebration, including details about the performances, activities, and any special guests or awards.

6. Upcoming Events:

- Information about upcoming events or programs organized by the alumni organization.

7. Community Spotlights:

- Profiles of individuals or groups within the community making a positive impact or achieving notable success.
- Features on notable members or achievements within the organization.
- Interviews with participants or organizers sharing their experiences and thoughts on the event.

Dear Parents,

We are excited to invite you to a special outdoor event organized by Projonmo Power to celebrate cultural heritage and promote community engagement. This event will provide a platform for our generation to showcase their creativity and talents while fostering a sense of unity and cultural pride.

Event Details:

Date: [Date of Event]

Time: [Time of Event]

Location: [Name of Park or Venue]

Activities:

- Presentation of School Projects in Mother Language: We invite parents to join us as their children present their school projects in their mother language. This is an opportunity for students to share their achievements and celebrate our community's diversity of languages and cultures.
- Teen Book Project Circle: Students will gather in a circle after school to share their book projects with their peers and parents. This interactive session will showcase our young scholars' hard work and creativity.
- Animation (and Lantern Fly): As part of the Projonmo Power activities, a unique animation (and lantern fly display) will symbolize our commitment to bridging the gap between generations and promoting cultural heritage.
- Teen Voice on School Issues: Students will have the opportunity to voice their opinions on school issues during the event, fostering dialogue and understanding between students, parents, and educators.
- Anti-Bullying Campaign: We will also launch an anti-bullying campaign during the event, emphasizing the importance of kindness, empathy, and respect in our school community.

We encourage all parents to attend this exciting event and support our students. Together, we can create a welcoming and inclusive environment where every child feels valued and empowered to succeed.

If you have any questions or require further information, please do not hesitate to contact us. We look forward to seeing you at the event and celebrating our cultural heritage together.

Warm regards,
