

The End From The Beginning

(The digital versions of these bible studies have clickable blue hyperlinks for expanded context)

Isaiah 46:10 Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:

The creation week describes what happened here on earth... it's the prophecy and the story from the beginning.... The creation is the story of the 7000 years of earth history and describes what has actually happened... and of course what is left. As the sun sets, each day starts a new day.

Genesis 1:5 And God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And the evening and the morning were the first day.

2 Peter 3:8 But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

We are close to begin the new 7th day/Millennial Sabbath where Jesus will be our rest and Lord forever in His bosom.

The first day of the first month in creation God's work inside this universe box started in darkness and light and dark were separated representing the prophecy of God's divorce from sin and separation in the 1st millennia. 1st day = separation from God where man embraced satan the harlot. God our Husband divorced His creation and kicked His mate out of the Garden/House.

“As one day” and “in the day”... think about it for a second.... Now think about what God told Adam...

Genesis 2:16-17 And the LORD God commanded the man, saying, Of every tree of the garden thou mayest freely eat: (17) But of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, thou shalt not eat of it: for in the DAY that thou eatest thereof thou shalt surely die.

"in the DAY... thou shalt surely die" See how the devil twisted the word DAY to Adam?

How long did Adam live? 930 years, Adam died and was separated within "the 1st day/millennia" just as God said. Genesis 5:5 And all the days that Adam lived were nine hundred and thirty years: and he died.

Yeshua was the second Adam, the branch and seed of David in which Yeshua will rule like David. Luke 1:32 He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give unto him the throne of his father David:

David lived to be 70.

Adam 930 + David 70 = 1000 reign of Yeshua the last Adam 1 Corinthians 15:45-47

2 Corinthians 1:14 As also ye have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as ye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.

The 2nd day is the only day God did not say "it is good". Genesis 1:6 And God said, "Let there be an expanse in the midst of the waters, and let it separate the waters from the waters."

God covered the earth with water and it was separated from the waters above and below and that tells us the 2nd day/millennia the flood covered the earth and destroyed the evil that was not good.

2 Peter 3:4-7 And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation. (5) For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water: (6) Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished: (7) But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.

Day 3 Genesis 1:9-11 And God said, "Let the waters under the heavens be gathered together into one place, and let the dry land appear." And it was so. (10) God called the dry land Earth, and the waters that were gathered together he called Seas. And God saw that it was good. (11) And God said, "Let the earth sprout vegetation, plants yielding seed, and fruit trees bearing fruit in which is their seed, each according to its kind, on the earth." And it was so.

God created land and seed bearing fruit, which represents Abraham's seed that was provided land in the 3rd day/millennia where Israel is planted as the domestic tree.

Genesis 22:18 And in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because thou hast obeyed my voice.

On the 4th day (Genesis 1:16) God created the greater light, the sun... and the lesser light H3974

מארה מאורה מאר מאור

mâ'ôr mâ'ôr me'ôrâh me'ôrâh

maw-ore', (3,4) meh-o-raw'

properly a luminous body or luminary, that is, (abstractly) light (as an element); figuratively brightness, that is, cheerfulness; specifically a chandelier: - bright, light. [singular]

Could this also show us the oneness of God in that the Moon would not shine unless the Glory and fire in the sun did not exist?

...the moon. At the end of the 4th day/millennium just as the sun sets at the end of each day the The glory of God descended on earth, manifest in the flesh and came as our light and salvation to divide the light from the darkness and the life from death. Crucified on a Wednesday, the end of that 4th day at the end of the 4th millennia to satisfy the 3 days and 3 nights in the grave in time to rise for the "morrow after the sabbath." and First fruits.

Luke 12:51 Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division:

Genesis 1:16-19 And God made two great lights; the greater light to rule the day, and the lesser light to rule the night: he made the stars also. (17) And God set them in the firmament of the heaven to give light upon the earth, (18) And to rule over the day and over the night, and to divide the light from the darkness: and God saw that it was good. (19) And the evening and the morning were the fourth day.

Jeremiah 31:35 Thus saith the LORD, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; The LORD of hosts is his name:

Malachi 4:2 But unto you that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall.

Day 5 Genesis 1:20-21 And God said, "Let the waters swarm with swarms of living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the expanse of the heavens." (21) So God created the great sea creatures and every living creature that moves, with which the waters swarm, according to their kinds, and every winged bird according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

The fish and birds were created and after the Son of God came He instructed them to go from that point on and to go and be fishers of men into the 5th millennium forward. The dove/bird representing the Holy Ghost that filled the fishers of men.

Matthew 4:19 And he saith unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.

On the 6th day man was created to multiply and fill the earth. To spread to the 4 corners.

Earth was "considered full" when it reached 7 billion in our 6th millennia/6th day. We are in the 6th day/millennia and it has come true... the earth is filled.

On the 7th day nothing was created but God declared that day set aside, sanctified and made a holy rest with Him.

The bible has this theme. That theme is God wants to spend eternity with His creation in total relaxation just as it was designed in the garden.

Creation week shows us that the end of the 7th day had no cap or end; it was designed to be a rest with God and His creation forever. Unfortunately "in the day" man separated from God because of our sin and embrace of the bosom and lies of the harlot/satan. We were separated like a divorced wife, kicked out of the house/garden, no longer benefiting in the embrace of God's marriage of eternal life, we now have to work for everything by the sweat of our brow for 6 days/millennia and that is the payment for disobedience. Because disobedience is not love.

But God wants us to have hope of His return and a taste of that relaxation we once had with Him in the garden. So He has Israel, His bride rest on the day He set aside, sanctified and made holy. The 7th day not only reminds us the way it was supposed to be, but how it WILL BE with Him when He returns for His bride in the 7th day/millennial sabbath, when we will tabernacle and rest with Him for eternity.

Mark 2:27-28 And he said to them, "The Sabbath [garden] was made for man, not man for the Sabbath [garden]. (28) So the Son of Man is lord even of the Sabbath [garden]." [Lord of the last 1000 years. Resting in Jesus like it once was in the garden.]

Because if you knew what Jesus' words meant by this? Liberty to rest with Him.

Sabbath is an equalizer in that all folks no matter the lowest to the highest class levels are equal in that day[garden], because slaves are bound to the harlot/sin and the servitude of their jobs or work 7 days a week... slaves don't have the liberty to rest... and if you want to show God that you want the liberty to spend an eternity with Him in that rest and relaxation just like it was in the garden, then it would be wise to show God this sign that you are His and desire to be with Him in rest for eternity in the 7th day/millennia rest.

Exodus 31:17 It is a sign between me and the children of Israel for ever: for in six days the LORD made heaven and earth, and on the seventh day he rested, and was refreshed.

God said "FOR EVER" we don't have the authority to change or alter that declaration and woe to those that try. Jesus is our rest, our Millennial rest and King of that rest.

Why do people harden their hearts to God on His rest so much? He wants to have a garden rest with you. If the 7th day rest points to Jesus and His bosom and resting embrace in the 7th millennium just as it once was in the garden. Then the 1st day points to the embrace of the Harlot that we must come out of, which represents separation from God on the 1st day/millennia of the week. 1st day = separation. 7th day = Garden with Jesus.

Isaiah 58:13-14 “If you turn back your foot from the Sabbath, from doing your pleasure on my holy day, and call the Sabbath a delight and the holy day of the LORD honorable; if you honor it, not going your own ways, or seeking your own pleasure, or talking idly; (14) then you shall take delight in the LORD, and I will make you ride on the heights of the earth; I will feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father, for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.”

We must know, keep, and observe what God tells us without making excuses. Would you sell it all, quit your job, and leave all worldly things behind knowing God would provide for you? Or would you be like the rich man?

Luke 18:22 Now when Jesus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

...God will provide your needs, and a job so you could follow Him as He desires, and He will never forsake you... give Him a chance and stop relying on what man can do and trust in Him.

Hebrews 4:8 For if Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.

Hebrews 4:7 Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

Jesus showed us we cannot change the sabbath day and it's forever.

If we could change the day God wanted us to rest on then the 7 day week (7000 Year) prophecy would be broken Isaiah 46:10 "end from the beginning" would not have meaning and neither would these RED words? Matthew 24:20 But pray ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day:

God wants to trust us on the small things.

Luke 16:10-11 He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust also in much. (11) If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

Luke 16:31 And he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

Isaiah 14:3 And it shall come to pass in the day [last 1000 years] that the LORD shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard bondage wherein thou wast made to serve,

Revelation 20:6 Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

Acts 3:21 Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began.

The bible told us the end from the beginning. Taste the Garden.
