

Barbies in Turmoil

Sin City Slugfest IV Fallout

The recently fought Sin City Slugfest IV, held at the MGM Grand in Las Vegas, Nevada, featured 40 fighters who battled it out in the squared circle to see who were the best boxers in the UCC. After 23 bone jarring fights the winners celebrated while the losers were left to pick up the pieces. 11 Stables competed and when the final bell clanged, the Bosses fighters from the Strikeforce stable came out on top sporting a 4-1 record.

The Lost Wildcats/Awesome Aries finished with 8 wins against 5 losses and ended the event on a high winning the final 4 fights, 3 of them coming against their hated Badass Barbies rivals. The Badass Barbies started the event on fire winning 4 of their first 5 but quickly fell on hard times losing their last 4.

Olivia Rodrigo stepped in when Gena Lee Nolin pulled out of her fight with Alexandra Paul and battled her way to a costly victory after Alexandra landed some damaging shots to her body. Her next fight against Laura Marano turned out disastrous when Laura went to work on Olivia's breasts repeatedly pummeling them leaving Badass Barbie rookie rolled up in a ball.

A bruised and battered Olivia was taken to the local hospital and was released after spending the night under observation. Olivia's training schedule was also cut short allowing her time to heal. Laura posted her Celebratory Response then sent out an open challenge to any Barbie who dared to step in the ring with her.

Kendall Jenner dominated Lost Wildcat Chloe Moretz in the closing rounds of their tightly contested fight only to let her guard down for a split second. That was all the hard hitting Moretz needed to knock Kendall clean out and record the biggest comeback in Sin City Slugfest history. Despite Kendall's best efforts she was unable to put the stubborn blonde away. Chloe simply refused to lose and hung in there against all odds and waited for an opportunity. An uppercut thrown from the hip split Kendall's guard and the crushing blow instantly knocked out the lanky Supermodel.

Kylie Jenner lost her Queen of Social Media Title to her half sister Kim Kardashian then came back to fight Katherine McPhee in the Main Event. Kylie's big sis won the fight despite interference from her ex. Kanye West.

The main event ended up being a hard hitting back and forth Bare Knuckle bout. Katherine took control of the fight and Kylie ended up taking a brutal beating failing to make the bell for the 10th round.

A thoroughly beat up Kylie was also taken to a local Hospital where she spent the next 2 days under concussion protocol.

After taking their lumps Kylie decided that Sin City Slugfest IV would be the last of the Badass Barbie sponsored promotions. She felt that the events were not only affecting her Stable but they were causing internal strife driving a wedge between her fighters. Kylie brought her team together for their weekly meeting and waited until the end to make the announcement.

Kylie: In closing, Sin City Slugfest IV was our last sponsored event.

Some of Kylie's fighters started grumbling while the rest looked confused.

Kylie: These special promotions are not only causing us to miss crucial training time but they are also driving a wedge between us. As a team leader, I feel that we are losing focus and giving our rivals momentu . . .

Before Kylie can finish Taylor Swift takes a break from lifting some free waits and interrupts Kylie mid sentence.

Taylor: I hope this doesn't have anything to do with how Sin City IV ended.

Kylie: Absolutely not!

Katherine McNamara: Then how are we supposed to pay the Lost Wildcats back? Are we just supposed to let them win the last few fights and give them bragging rights forever? We need to get them back in the ring and show them who's boss.

Kylie: Our main focus should be on winning fights in the UCC and not paying someone back after an unsanctioned event. You should be concentrating on Josie Maran. She is a well rounded fighter so you should work on your training.

Katherine: I got this, Kylie. When I'm done with Josie she's never going to want to fight a Barbie again.

Selena Gomez: I know we've been at war with the Awesome Aries and the Lost Wildcats for a few years now but are we seriously going to let them beat us and not answer them back. It's going to look like we are afraid of them.

Kristen Stewart: So you're saying that I won't be able to beat up anymore Raccoons? I thought that Kristen Challenges All Raccoon's II" was a go for OFN 2023. You know how I've been looking forward to owning my own stable.

Kylie: We need to make the UCC our main priority. All of these extra fights are taking a toll. Even when you beat up a gaze of Raccoons.

Kristen: I thought a bunch of Raccoons was called a nursery?

Kylie: That's not important right now. We need to concentrate on our training in the UCC and not waste our time fighting in special events.

Kendall Jenner: You're wrong little sis. I need to get Chloe Moretz back in the ring and prove to everyone that she got in a lucky punch. I had her beat after 9 rounds and the little bitch landed a lucky uppercut.

Hailey Baldwin: And have you seen some of their posts? They're talking a lot of crap about us, especially that crazy bitch Moretz. You'd think she was killing Kendall by the way she is bragging about her win. She even mentioned it on Jimmy Kimmel and got the audience behind her.

Kylie: Let them brag all they want. We're going to let them have their fun but in the end we know who the better fighters are.

Madison Beer: What about Olivia Rodrigo? Are we going to let the Marano's get away with trying to maim her like Laura did. Laura went way over the line and could have caused permanent damage.

Olivia Holt: I heard that Olivia won't be able to wear a bra for at least another week. We need to pay them back.

Selena: There is nothing wrong with going braless. I haven't worn a bra in 3 years.

Zendaya: We're not all blessed with perfect assets like you, Sel.

Kylie: I'm sorry but hat one was on me. I should have never let Olivia in the ring with Laura. Olivia is a rookie and was no match for a psycho like Laura.

Miley Cyrus: What they need is a good ole fashioned ass whoopin. They think that they own us and we need to fight back or we'll look like a bunch of pussies.

Kylie: Worry about your next fight. Cara Delevingne has your title and she isn't about to give it up.

Dove Cameron: What about Dove's Disney Games? You have to admit that it was a huge success.

Kylie: It was until the end where everyone beat the shit out of each other.

Kelli Berglund: We should have never invited those annoying Wannabees. They are almost as bad as the Awesome Aries and the Lost Wildcats. All they want to do is fight us.

Paris Berelc: The brawl was Francesca Capaldi's fault. She came over and started wailing on Sabrina Carpenter.

Paris: I'm sick and tired of putting up with their shit. We need to put an end to them, especially those Ziegler sisters.

Kelli: At least Dove beat the snot out of Brec Bassinger. If anyone deserved a bare ass spanking it was Brec.

Jordyn Jones: They are so annoying, Did you see Sammi Hanratty's post after the brawl. Who in the hell does she think she is?

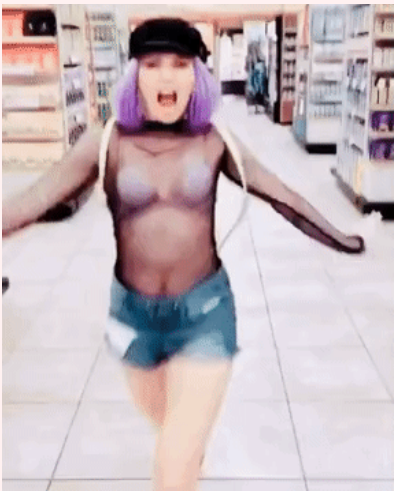

Kylie: Nobody is going to pay attention to them.

Kelli: It got over 50k views in the first hour. She made it sound like her stable kicked our asses.

Paris: And what happens if they decide to team up? We won't stand a chance against their combined forces.

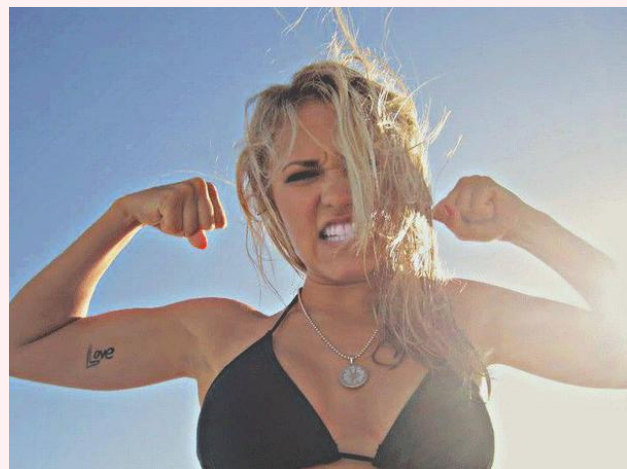

Kylie: We already have Strikeforce behind us and I'm working on an alliance with another stable.

Gigi Hadid: Stirkeforce has saved our asses on many occasions but what are we going to do, let Strikeforce fight our battle for us? Come on, Kylie. Let us fight!

Kylie: Listen to us! We're acting like a bunch of High School adolescents. We are better than that and we need to turn the other cheek and let them worry about payback. Who cares if they beat us in a few fights. We've done it to them many times before.

Elle Fanning: And they always answered it with a challenge. They never back down especially the Marano's and Chloe Moretz. If we sit back and let this slide then the Marano's will be taking over the UCC. Do you want that, Kylie? A crazy Marano calling the shots?

Jordyn Jones: And the same goes with the Duff Sisters and that new chick Emily Osment. Someone needs to punch Emily in the mouth.

Bella Thorne: Every time they sign a new fighter it keeps getting worse. Emily Osment, Sofia Wylie, McKayla Maroney, Mary Mouser, and Peyton Elizabeth Lee, All of them will do whatever it takes to end us.

Bella Hadid: It gets worse. I heard through the grapevine that they have 3 new recruits signed.

Kylie: That doesn't really concern us now does it. Rookies seldom make a difference anyway.

Dove: Well, that may be partially true. I heard that they signed some blonde ditzzy named DeVore Ledridge but It gets a lot worse. Alyson Hannigan and Sarah Michelle Gellar were spotted in their facility.

Olivia: That's bad news. Alyson and Sarah have over 100 cage fights between them.

Dove: That was in the UMMA. A lot has changed since then. The competition is a lot stiffer now and it will be interesting to see how they adjust to a 5 round fight.

Bella: We just can't let them sign ringers like Alyson and Michelle.

Kylie: It's not like they're going to make a difference. At least until they get back in the cage and work out the rust.

Bella: I have a bad feeling about this.

Kylie: Sorry but they could sign the She Hulk and it's not going to change my mind. We are done sponsoring any more events.

Sofie Richie: So no more Sin City Slugfests? Those events brought in millions of dollars.

Kylie: Sin City Slugfest is now in the past as well as another other event,

Sofia Richie: Come on Kylie. Boxing is fun and it helps us strengthen our MMA skills. It's only going to make us better in the long run. So what if we lose a few bouts. The experience I got from Sin City Slugfest II helped me beat Emma Watson when she was the number 1 ranked fighter.

Dove: The same goes for Oil Wrestling. Slippery When Wet was one of our highest attended events. Being able to wrestle when you're slipping and sliding half naked is not only a great workout but it allows us to work on our balance and hone in our submission skills.

Ashley Benson: I'm all for getting naked next time.

Kylie: There is not going to be a next time, Ashley and there is no way they are going to let you oil wrestle naked.

Ashley: Are you sure this doesn't have anything to do with you losing to Katherine McPhee. She's a world class boxer and she can really punch hard. I heard that she's the club Champion over at Ferry Street Boxing. I even heard that she now only trains with Rashad Evans.

Taylor: Everyone knows that Katherine is 6-0 at Sin City and can box but if Kylie fought her again I think she could take her.

Kylie: I'm not fighting Katherine again and there will be no more Barbie sponsored events..

Ashley: I know you're hurting but you can't let Katherine beat the crap out of you and turn and run like a scared little girl. Katherine isn't about to go away until she buries you a few more times. You need to challenge her and pay her back or the entire UCC will be pushing us around.

Shailene Woodley: It was clear that you weren't the same after she pinned you and elbowed you in the face. It was a boxing match and she clearly cheated! Are you going to let her get away with that? Cheating is for losers.

Megan Fox: I agree, what they did to Olivia may only be the beginning if you don't put a stop to this,

Kylie: All of that is in the past.

Zara: I can't believe we are going to just sit back and let Katherine get away with cheating.

Kylie: My decision is final. There will be no more Badass Barbie sponsored events period.

Dove: Then challenge her to a one on one boxing match. Just you and her in the ring for one final time.

Hailee Steinfeld: I think we all are in agreement. You need to schedule another event.

Joey King: Come on, Kylie. You'll do better next time. I know you can beat her.

Zara: We're all behind you boss. You can beat Katherine and then you won't have to hide from her anymore.

Kylie: I'M NOT AFRAID OF KATHERINE MCPHEE!!

The Badass Barbies beg and plead with Kylie but she has already made her decision and the meeting abruptly comes to a close.
