(Why am I making this? Because Average Speed wagon/ the dude who made Antonio was cool with me and tried to help me get back into the community and I would like to say I was a weird person two years ago and I just did it for shits and giggles and I wanted to go back to the Reddits discord server. We also used to play Minecraft)

Perk: Vagabond

Introduction: Daem/Daemian Khamsin Shepherd

used to be a man in weapons and research for the United States Army eventually joining the agency because he heard there was higher pay. At one point he had a family of four. He doesn't like to talk about them, we only know that he had a son, daughter, and wife that is part of the agency. Since this file is mainly about him we won't talk about them. Daem would rather be called Khamsin because it rolled off the tongue better. Daem now is a guy who does experiments in his quarters. He isn't the talkative kind of person to chat with. Daem mainly works on a stolen AKM that he took from Eden-227 turning it into a "American-ised" RPD that he's proud of. He always wears a white tiger mask saying it will help camouflage him in the snow.

Background:

He was in weapons and research for seven years. Has two eighteen year old kids that he doesn't talk to and lives with their mom. He avoids them at work and talking. He doesn't like his son because he's a weird kid, as in seeing questionable clothing in his room (based on a real person I met btw). But his daughter is his favorite even though he doesn't talk to her. Mainly because she is his first child. He explains about his kids sometimes his son having his hair and hair color and daughter with short hair with blue hair. Never talks about his ex wife though.

During the collapse:

He didn't participate

First got to the agency:

Daem was twenty eight when he joined he soon met a woman and had kids. He never had what he was currently wearing. He actually wore this. (He was made 3 years ago when decaying winter was re-released)

And to present day he looks like this still wearing the old pants but white

Daem's katana used to have that woman's signature on its sheath now it's no more but scratches.

Fighting skills:

Speed: Really fast

Damage: Normal

Aim: Mild

Fragileness: tank

Iq: 130

Battle iq: Great (but he never parries like me)

Stamina: Great

Bruises/scars

Under his left eye, a ton on his arms, stab wound in his stomach. Two or three bruises on his legs. Some how no bullets inside him.

Fun facts:

Daem was supposed to be like sun downer from mgrr when I first made him because I thought it was cool. Daem's middle name Khamsin is from mgrr from the DLC boss Khamsin. Daem's last name is based off Adrian Shepherd from half life opposing force. I was honestly thinking to give Daem a custom perk called Below zero and it would be like Sub Zero (I only like MKX sub zero) and his code name was going to be Tundra but ehh might keep it as canon and stuff. If Daem dies to reikgon he would end up as Noob Saibot but instead of a sickle it would be a katana and instead of white eyes it would be red.

Daem in HLM sprites becuase I can't draw.
