

OnRamps Instructional Plans

OnRamps is a signature initiative of The University of Texas at Austin , with support from the Texas Legislature, to provide advanced academic opportunities to high school students., OnRamps has been offering dual enrollment and distance education to high school students to engage in authentic college experiences and earn college credit while in the familiarity of the high school setting.

The current OnRamps courses offered in Allen ISD can be found in the AISD Academic Planning Guide, which is updated annually and posted here.
