Evaluation Template

Paper 1 - b DDDET & CLASPP
13-15 mark band:

- [D] Clear understanding of the specific demands of the questions.
- [D] Relevant economic terms are used appropriately throughout the response.
- [D] Where appropriate, relevant diagrams diagram(s) are included and fully explained.
- [E] A relevant real-world example is identified and fully developed to support the argument.
- [T] Relevant economic theory is fully explained.
- [CLASPP] Evidence of effective and balanced synthesis or evaluation.

The issue / question

Concepts involved (think about which terms to use)

Real live example:

Diagram(s):

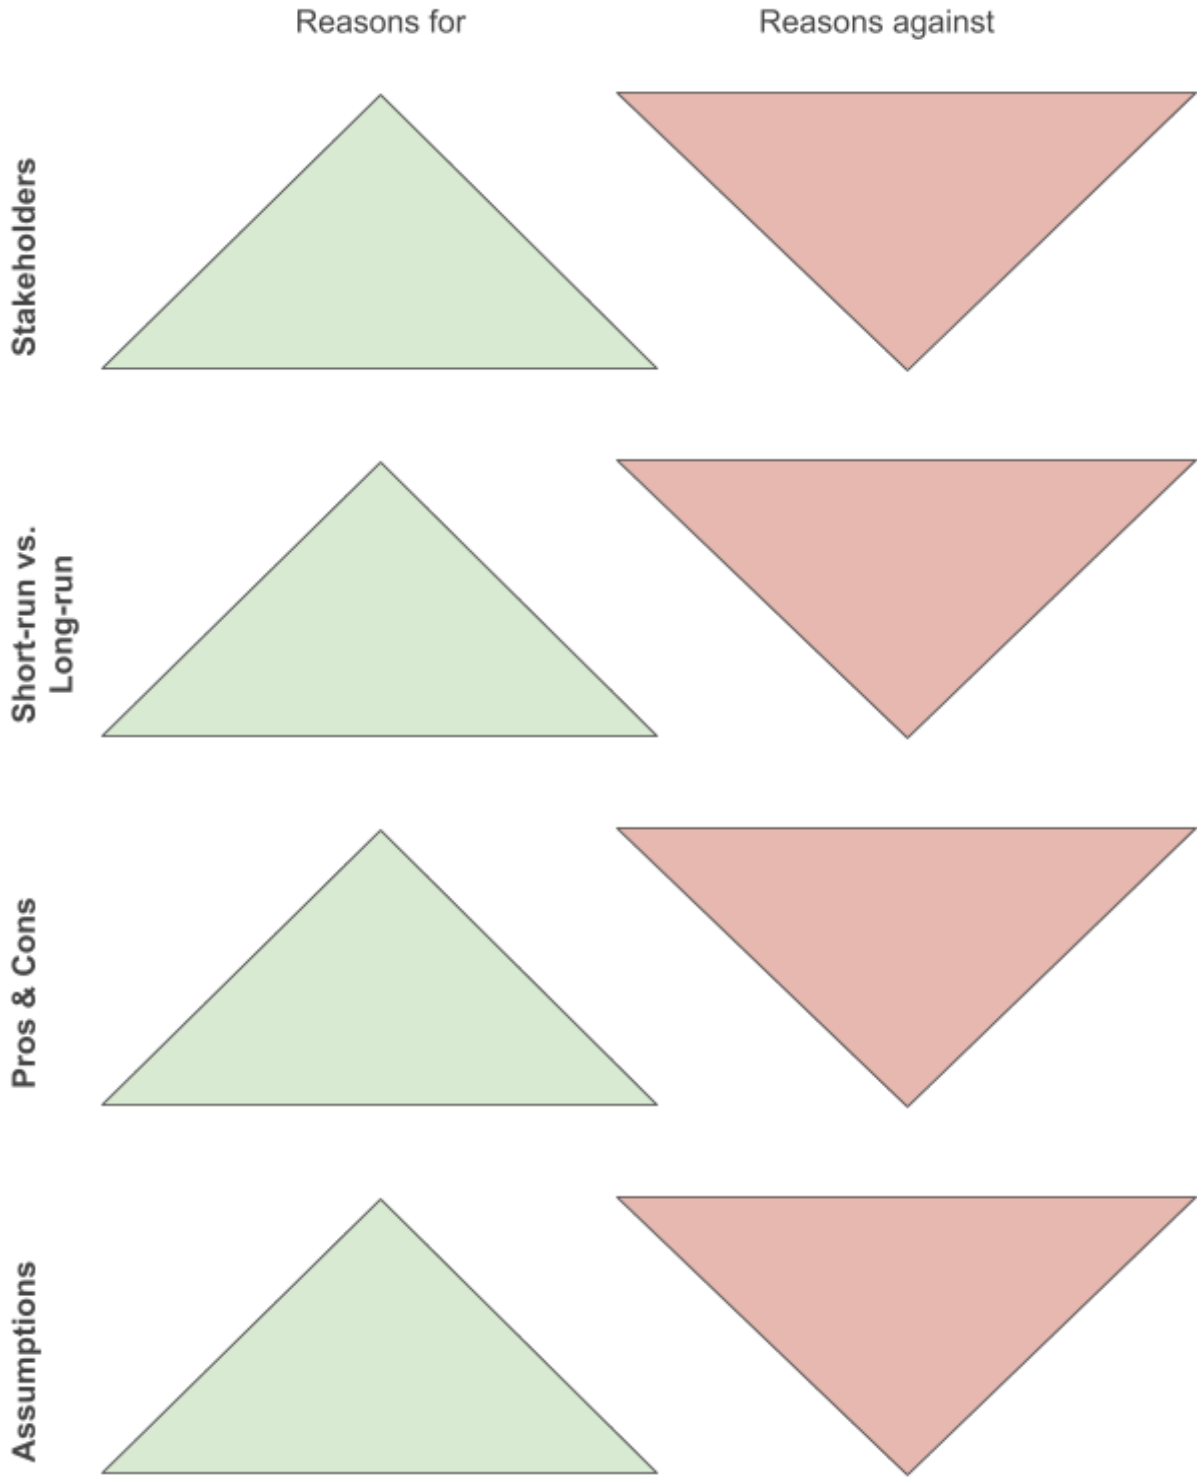

Explanation:

Your diagram must be very clear, accurately labeled, show movement (arrows) and include curves, points, values in the X and Y axis that you will refer to in your explanation.

Evaluation

Is the policy / idea good or bad? What are the pros and cons? What are the pros and cons from different perspectives, for different stakeholders, in different time periods (short run and long run?). You do not have to mention all of these elements, but think about which are the most relevant for the given case.

Justification & Conclusions

The sentences below are examples you could use in your evaluation.
Source: Elashiry, M (2021) “Paper 1 Part B Advice NEW IB ECONOMICS SYLLABUS”. Youtube. Available at: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5KDpiJY6kf4

In order to evaluate _____, it is necessary to consider the pros and cons, as well as the effects on the various stakeholders in both the short run and the long run.

Some of the short term impacts of this include _____. HOWEVER, in the long term _____.

The analysis in this question is based on the assumption/s that _____. HOWEVER, some of the limitations of these assumptions are _____.

Some of the stakeholders gaining from this are _____. HOWEVER, some of the stakeholders losing include _____.

Some of the pros/advantages of this include _____. HOWEVER, there are also disadvantages/ cons, and these include _____.

An argument for this would be _____. HOWEVER, a counterargument would be _____.

On balance, it would appear that the most effective policy is _____ since _____.