DETAILS

Description	Spend your nights cradled in silken, blissful luxury. The two-sided Teesdale turns your bed into a comforting cocoon, but with exceptional support. 26,100 springs - 15 total layers The Teesdale is the perfect choice for indulgent comfort, consisting of eight layers of hand-teased, natural fillings, and seven layers of innovative pocket springs. This double-sided mattress should be rotated and flipped over with the seasons to benefit from the warmer side in winter and the cooler side in summer. Herdwick fleeces provide a superior quality wool that excels at temperature regulation, keeping you warm in winter. Combined with Silk, the result is a sumptuous blend of mattress fillings with incredible softness, springiness and natural moisture absorbency. The cooler side contains breathable cotton, helping to keep you cool and fresh in summer. The result - a fantastically luxurious mattress.

	Silk - strong, luxurious, moisture absorbing fibres spun from silkworms. Mohair - from Angora goat, an incredibly elastic and resilient filling. Egyptian Cotton - longer, finer threads aid breathability and cooling. Herdwick Wool - temperature regulating, breathable, helps with allergies. Hemp - highly absorbent, hypo-allergenic, antimicrobial and breathable. Flax - strong, light and sustainable fibre that promotes breathability. Cotton - soft, absorbent and highly breathable, wicks away moisture.
Dimensions	W: 180 cm L: 200 cm H: 34 cm
Turn-able?	This double-sided mattress should be rotated and flipped over with the seasons to benefit from the warmer side in winter and the cooler side in summer.
