

4 Directions / Opening Prayer

To the Guardians of the East, of air, breath, inspiration, renewal, and birth. We welcome you to this circle:

Beloved Divine within and beyond,
I offer gratitude for all that I am,
all that I have, and all that I am awakening to.
With the power of Air, I cleanse myself of the past and open myself to the nourishing force of a new beginning.
This I do wisely for the highest good of ALL.
So may it be.

To the Guardians of the South, of fire, illumination, transformation, the brilliant spark of youth. We welcome you to this circle:

Beloved Divine within and beyond,
I offer gratitude for all that I am,
all that I have, and all that I am awakening to.
With the power of fire, I illuminate the future
and open myself to the blaze of a new beginning.
This I do passionately for the highest good of ALL.
So may it be.”

To the Guardians of the West, of water, change, emotions, and the wisdom of the elders. We welcome you to this circle:

Beloved Divine within and beyond,
I offer gratitude for all that I am,
all that I have, and all that I am awakening to.
With the power of water, I give free-flowing energy to the future and open myself to the invigoration of a new beginning.
This I do fluidly for the highest good of ALL.
So may it be.

To the Guardians of the North, of earth, wisdom, solidity, and the inevitability of Death. We welcome you to this circle:

Beloved Divine within and beyond,
I offer gratitude for all that I am,
all that I have, and all that I am awakening to.
With the power of the earth, I manifest my intentions to embrace the fertile creation of a new beginning.

This I do steadily for the highest good of ALL.
So may it be it.
