

Ana Summaries

Summary 1

In Paul Fleischman's book, Seedfolks, the story "Ana" is about an old lady who lives in Gibb street. She always see through the window what's happening on the Gibb St. When she see Kim digging on the ground, Ana think Kim is hiding something. Ana went to the vacant lot, to figure out what's she hide. When she figured out the truth, she start to become friend with Kim, by giving water her beans.

Summary 2

In Paul Fleischman's book, Seedfolks, the story "Ana" is about an old lady who lives on Givv street, Cleveland. She has been living here for a long time since 1919. She always looks from her window. One day she saw a little girl burying something in the vacant lot. After she found out she wasn't doing anything bad she realized she is very pessimistic she became optimistic.

Summary 3

In Paul Fleischman's book, Seedfolks, the story "Ana" is about an old lady who lives on Gibb Street, Cleveland. She has been living here for a long time since 1919. She is from Romania, she always look from her window one day she saw a little girl burying something. After she found out the truth about Kim she realize that she was wrong about Kim and she became optimist.

Summary 4

In Paul Fleischman's book, Seedfolks, the story "Ana" is about an old woman who lives in a dirty street with a few people. One day she realizes a girl named "Kim" digging something into the ground. Ana was pessimist, she thought that "Kim" was burying guns or money, but was wrong when she dug out the beans. Ana bought some binoculars, so she won't judge people anymore.