

Meeting of the Missouri Classical Association Saturday,
September 28, 2019 At the invitation of the Department of Classics Washington University -
St. Louis Busch Hall

9:15 AM - 9:45 AM - Welcome from the Missouri Classical Association
9:45 - 11:10 AM - Paper Session 1 (Busch 100)

Moderator: Tom Keeline, Asst. Professor of Classics, Washington University

“The εισαγωγικός of Varro; Pamphlet of Religious Manipulation”

Alex Terwelp, Latin Teacher, Rock Bridge High School, Columbia Public Schools

“A Holy Trinity: Magic, Mystery Cults, and Philosophy of Apuleius’ Apology”
Drew Buchheim, Doctoral Student, University of Missouri - Columbia

“A Master of Her Trade: Venus’ Duplicity and Culpability in the Aeneid”
Christina Slipke, Undergraduate Student, Truman State University

“Two Sides of the Dice: Analyzing Two Domains of Dionysus in Greek Polytheism”
Nina Andersen, Undergraduate Student, University of Arkansas

11:30 AM - 12:50 PM - Paper Session 2 (Busch 100)

Moderator: David Schenker, Assoc. Professor of Classics, University of Missouri-Columbia

“Student-Centered Engagement: A Case Study in Departmental Outreach”

Joe MacDonald, Doctoral Student, Washington University
Marleigh Anderson, Doctoral Student, Washington University
Kirby Schoephoerster, Graduate Student, Washington University

“Perspectives on Data Archiving as Pedagogy in Field Archaeology”
Sarah Buchanan, Asst. Professor of Library and Information Science, University of Missouri-Columbia

“Only the Good Die Young: The Primacy of Youth in Verse Epitaphs of Roman Girls and Young Women”

Kristin Harper, Recent PhD, University of Missouri-Columbia

“Weaving Your Name; Singing Penelope’s Tapestry”

Philip Barnes, John Burroughs School, St.
Louis

1:00-2:00 PM - Lunch (Busch 202)

If you ordered a box lunch they will be set up in Busch 202 by 1:00, drinks will be provided.*

Box lunches are $11.00 and can be ordered from the following website:

<https://forms.gle/jnLV7VrT1SxowXCe6>

2:00-3:30 PM - Keynote Speaker (Busch 100)

“Fighting in the Shade: Greek Hoplite Warfare in the Persian Wars”

Gamal Castile, Historian

Description: An interactive presentation including a vast collection of accurate reproduction ancient Greek weaponry.

3:30 PM - Final remarks

Alex Terwelp - Latin Teacher, Rock Bridge High School, Columbia Public Schools

How to get to Busch Hall: All MOCA sessions will be in Busch Hall. Busch Hall is at the ‘south side of Brookings Quadrangle. From 40/64 East, take Big Bend until you reach Forsyth Boulevard.

Tips for Parking: East End Garage will be the closest parking structure to Busch Hall. Parking on the weekend is free. The garage is located on Forsyth Boulevard. Please use the first floor.