

COPYRIGHT TEMPLATE

from Book Design Made Simple by Fiona Raven and Glenna Collett

For copyright pages in the U.S. and Canada, use this template in conjunction with the blog post at BookDesignMadeSimple.com in order to have all the latest information plus links to sites that are important for creating a top-notch copyright page—the most important one in your book. This template does not constitute legal advice of any kind.

Use the black copy below in your copyright page, filling in the blanks with your information. Annotations are [red, in brackets]. Footnotes are at the end of the document.

Copyright¹ © year Author Name(s) [For higher editions, list the years starting with the most recent, like this: 2020, 2015, 2009.]

All rights reserved. [The following is optional.] No part of this book may be reproduced in any form or by any electronic or mechanical means, including information storage and retrieval systems, without permission in writing from the publisher, except by reviewers, who may quote brief passages in a review. [Add more restrictions and allowances if you wish.]

ISBN² _____

Cataloging in Publication data block³ [optional, but encouraged]

Library of Congress Control Number⁴ _____ [optional, but encouraged in the U.S.]

Add any permissions and credits here, including:

Permission to use material from other works

Credits for illustrations or photos

Credits for cover design and images [highly encouraged]

[Optional] People who worked on your book, such as your editor, designer, proofreader, or indexer

Printed in country [In the U.S., spell it out: the United States of America]

[Optional] Published by Publisher Name [if you have one]

[Optional] Physical address or email [encouraged so that others can get in touch to request permission to use passages from your book]

Visit your website URL here

1. Get your official U.S. copyright at <https://copyright.gov/>. In Canada, simply type the notice on the copyright page and it becomes official.
2. In the U.S., get your ISBN at <http://www.bowker.com/>. In Canada, go to <http://www.bac-lac.gc.ca/eng/services/isbn-canada/pages/isbn-canada.aspx>
3. See our blog post at _____ to learn why and how to get CIP data.
4. In the U.S., get your free LCCN at <http://www.loc.gov/publish/pcn/>