

An Attestation for Editorial Independence

October 27, 2023

In light of alleged interference with the editorial independence of Artforum, which comes after a multi-year period of corporate consolidation that has impacted the editorial viability of historically significant American art magazines:¹

We, the undersigned, as contributors to, and members of the art industry covered by, the following subsidiaries of Penske Media Corporation (PMC), hereby withdraw our future participation in any editorial or commercial activities of:

—Artforum Media, LLC d/b/a Artforum International Magazine, ArtforumEDU, artforum.com

—Art Media, LLC d/b/a Art in America, ARTnews, AiA Guide, artnews.com

Our non-participation is inclusive of, but not limited to: paid and unpaid subscription, contribution of writing or granting of publication rights, contribution of images or granting of image rights, purchase of advertising, consulting engagements, social media engagement, and the granting of on- or off-record interviews to employees or contractors of such entities.

Our withdrawal is perpetually attached to the brand identities of these publications, with survivorship to any successor entity with whole or partial claim to the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office word marks Artforum, Art in America, or Artnews (“ARTFORUM” reg. #1171189; “ART IN AMERICA” reg. #1256855; “ARTNEWS” reg. #5769773, U.S. Pat. & Tm. Off.).

This letter, to the extent that it is binding, may be renegotiated upon satisfaction that conditions of editorial freedom are met, namely in case of material changes in editorial organization, such as the disposition of any of the foregoing PMC subsidiaries to their staffs.

We want independent forums for art. The official culture of our time is self-destructively conservative. Moments of possibility can arise negatively, when the fallowness of existing conditions calls for other, better things to grow.

The undersigned are to be construed as having personally and independently arrived at their decision to sign this document.
