

Sora Ilowitz

Project Rubric- My five senses book

	3 points	2 points	1 point
Completed the “My five senses book”	Complete, accurate, and neatly illustrated. There is a figure caption that perfectly describes the drawing on top. Students wrote their name very neatly. Student followed all the directions given by the teacher.	Complete, and mostly accurate, good illustrations. The figure caption describes the drawing on top. Students wrote their name neatly. Students followed directions given by the teacher.	Somewhat complete, few or weak illustrations. Student cannot write a figure caption on top of their drawing. Student name is difficult to identify. Student failed to follow all directions given by the teacher.
Contributed to group discussion and participated in all group activities	Worked very well with others all the time. Student was actively involved in all lessons. All classwork was also done appropriately.	Worked well with others most of the time. Student paid attention most of the times, but didn't always do the classwork the way it was expected.	Worked well with others very little of the time. Student didn't always participate in the lessons, and didn't spend most of her time doing what was required.
Knowledge gained	When asked to describe what the sense of sight, touch, taste, hear and smell, the student can describe it accurately.	When asked to describe what the sense of sight, touch, taste, hear and smell, student can describe it with a little difficulty.	When asked to describe what the sense of sight, touch, taste, hear and smell, student has a very difficult time describing it.
Drawing Details	Students colored completely inside the lines and used more than 5 colors and did their best work. Colors matched very well to their object.	Students colored somewhat inside the lines, used 3-5 colors and did good work. Colors match the object.	Students colored a little inside the lines, used 1-2 colors and didn't try the hardest. Colors did not match the objects.

