

Dear Friends,

What is gender? Is it the way a person acts? The way they look? Is it the identity society puts upon them based upon their appearance and actions? Or is it something else?

We want to hear your thoughts. Please join us for our next Red Bench conversation as we discuss Gender Identities.

The Red Bench is an ongoing dialogue program designed to address one of the most pressing needs of our time: improving interfaith understanding and civil discourse in our society.

Each conversation is centered on moderated small group discussions that are genuinely respectful and safe. No one has to be an expert. Individual participants are invited to share from their personal experiences and listen with their hearts. The format is structured and allows each individual to be heard. Each table is “hosted” by one or two table hosts.
