2. Use the photo hand out on elements of art & principals of design to help you, or the posters on the wall (feel free to take a picture with your phone to reference).
3. You must have one example of each (at least 15 different images). Many images will have multiple examples of E&P in them, but you must choose only one E&P to represent each image.
4. Write the subject of the image next to the E&P that it represents.
