MINISTER OF TRUTH

Reichstag. Berlin, Germany
March 21st, 1941

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Section 1, Addressing the Prime Minister.

To Prime Minister Reinhardt Weiss. I have received your document, where you make your embarrassing motion to remove me from office. This is a shadow of the former attempt on my employment from the same office. I remind you of the responsibilities YOU must abide by. You falsely make a remark that I oppose the authorities given to the federal council and its ministers, while you don't even understand your own authority.

As a reminder of the Crown Mandate, Article 5, section B. "Ministers, appointed to serve as members of the Federal Council, shall hold their positions unless a clear and justifiable reason for their removal is presented." You, Prime Minister may not remove people for doing their jobs, and not bending over to your misjudged authority. What authorities do I oppose? What specifically did I hinder? Instead of calling me a runt you could mayhap attend a seminar on giving more details. Until you fulfill your duties in the Crown Mandate;

1. I, Dirk Bürger will not recognize my removal from the Prime Minister until the following is set in place;
    a. A clear and justifiable reason for my removal is presented.
    b. A letter is sent to the Emperor, documenting my removal and the process thereof, with proof or confirmation of said letter being sent.
    c. Due Process is upheld.

2. I, Dirk Bürger, will retain the entirety of the title Minister of Truth and Society until due process is completely fulfilled.

"There is simply no winning with a narcissist."

Issued by,

Dirk Bürger

Koalitionpräfekt
Dirk Bürger
Truth & Society Minister

This document is promulgated upon release.